What do students read in Amplify CKLA®?

In Amplify CKLA, texts serve a variety of purposes, from building background knowledge, vocabulary, and comprehension to strengthening decoding and fluency skills.

In grades 3–5, integrated units bring the Skills and Knowledge strands together as students become increasingly automatic and strategic in their word recognition and language comprehension skills.

Student reading and comprehension activities involve a variety of reading materials:

- Authentic Read-Alouds and trade books ensure students encounter a variety of perspectives as they use these complex text to increase their knowledge while practicing vocabulary and listening comprehension skills.
- Student Readers connect to each theme and are designed to increase in complexity over time, providing a continual challenge as students' reading and listening comprehension skills develop and strengthen throughout the year.
- Novel Guides provide teachers a flexible option for extending authentic reading and text-based activities in the classroom using award-winning and acclaimed novels.
- ReadWorks articles give students access to additional high-quality texts aligned to both Amplify CKLA knowledge topics and the topics outlined in the California Framework for Social Studies, Science, and the Arts.

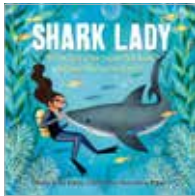

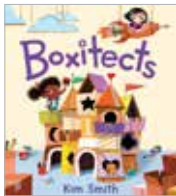

We invite you to take a closer look at the rich and authentic reading opportunities Amplify CKLA provides throughout this grade.

Authentic books

These authentic books have been carefully selected to deepen background knowledge and expose students to a diversity of text types and perspectives.

UNIT	TITLE AND AUTHOR	SYNOPSIS
Unit 1 Classic Tales	Martina the Beautiful Cockroach: A Cuban Folktale Carmen Agra Deedy	In this lively retelling of a Cuban folktale, Abuela convinces Martina to use an unusual test to help find the perfect husband. Several suitors fail the test before Martina meets her perfect match. Children will adore this clever and exciting story.
Unit 2 Animal Clasifications	Shark Lady: The True Story of how Eugenie Clark Became the Ocean's Most Fearless Scientist Jess Keating	Eugenie Clark was the first person to train sharks. As she changed the world's perception of sharks, she also proved that women can do anything. In this biography, readers learn fun facts about sharks and Clark's determination to follow her dreams.
Unit 3 The Human Body	Emmanuel's Dream: The True Story of Emmanuel Ofosu Yeboah Laurie Ann Thompson	This is a true story of a young boy in Ghana who was born with a disability. With his mother's encouragement, he found strength and the determination to overcome many obstacles, including riding 400 miles across Ghana. Readers will be inspired by his powerful message that having a disability does not mean you are unable to follow your dreams.
Unit 4 The Ancient Roman Civilization	Boxitects Kim Smith	Students can extend their learning about architecture through this playful text. Meg and Simone are the top boxitects at Maker School, but they have difficulty working together on a project in the Maker Match competition. When they decide to put their minds together, though, they just might find success.
Unit 5 Light and Sound	Drum Dream Girl Margarita Engle	This is a bright and colorful story about a little girl with big dreams: Millo Castro Zaldarriaga, a Chinese African Cuban girl who aspired to play the drums. Students will enjoy reading this sonic adventure and discovering how she never gave up on her passion and proved that women can be drummers too.
Unit 6 The Viking Age	Jabuti the Tortoise: A Trickster Tale from the Amazon Gerald McDermott	When a well-known tortoise plays one too many tricks, the other animals decide something has to change in this trickster tale from South America. Readers will love the vibrant illustrations and learning one story's take on how birds got their colors.

UNIT	TITLE AND AUTHOR	SYNOPSIS
Unit 7 Astronomy	Your Place in the Universe Jason Chin	With precise illustrations and thought-provoking text, Jason Chin's Your Place in the Universe breaks down the massive scale of the universe by first comparing the height of a child to the size of the book. Eventually, readers will discover the size of Earth, the Milky Way galaxy, and the observable universe. Realistic illustrations and fun-filled facts offer students a tangible connection to a topic that can be difficult to grasp.
Unit 8 Native Americans	Wilma's Way Home: The Life of Wilma Mankiller Doreen Rappaport	This biographical book tells the amazing story of Wilma Mankiller, the first female Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation. Readers of all ages will be inspired by the many challenges she overcame and how she dedicated her life to helping others. This text also helps connect student learning about indigenous people from long ago with contemporary Native Americans.
Unit 9 Early Explorations of North America	Nobody Owns the Sky: The Story of "Brave Bessie" Coleman Reeve Lindbergh	Students will enjoy learning about different kinds of explorers, such as Bessie Coleman, who pioneered aviation for African American women. This biography chronicles the adventures of this brave woman, who never gave up on her dream of flying. Note that the text does briefly mention her death in an aviation accident.
Unit 10 Colonial America	The Very First Americans Cara Ashrose	This book tells about the indigenous people living in America prior to colonization. Students will enjoy learning about where they lived, what they ate, and how they lived their lives; they can compare and contrast their lives with colonial life.
Unit 11 Ecology	The Great Kapok Tree: A Tale of the Amazon Forest Lynne Cherry	In this book, a man enters the rainforest to chop down a giant kapok tree and exhausts himself. As he sleeps, the animals whisper in his ear about the importance of trees and how creatures depend on each other. Students will enjoy this book and always remember its important message.
