Introduction

This unit differs from Units 3–5 in several ways. In each of the three previous units, you introduced eight or nine letter-sound correspondences. In this unit, you will introduce only one new letter-sound correspondence, the ‘s’ spelling for the /z/ sound. Students have already learned the spelling ‘z’ for the /z/ sound. In this unit, they will learn that the spelling ‘s’ is a spelling alternative for /z/. One goal for this unit is to encourage students to automatize the letter-sound correspondences and blending procedures they learned in Units 3–5.

There are three additional new elements in this unit:

1. consonant clusters
2. letter names
3. reading text independently

BLENDING

By the time you begin teaching this unit, most students should be able to blend. Students blending at a slower pace will improve with practice. It is more problematic if you have students who cannot blend at all. If students are still not blending, you should pause to work on blending before beginning this unit. Here are some reasons why:

First, letter names are introduced in this unit. Blending can be, and sometimes is, disrupted by letter names. A student may try to pronounce a word like dog using the letter names “dee” “oh” “gee” instead of the sound values /d/ /o/ /g/. There is potential for confusion between letter names like “oh” and sound values like /o/. It is probably best not to introduce the letter names until most students know the sound values and are using them to blend.

Second, consonant clusters are also introduced in this unit. These may pose a problem for students who are already having difficulty blending three phonemes. Many consonant sounds last only a split-second, and can be difficult to hear. They are especially difficult to hear when they occur immediately before or after other consonant sounds (i.e., in consonant clusters). A student who cannot blend the three sounds in cap is unlikely to blend the four sounds in clap or the five sounds in claps. Such a student will benefit from additional work with short words rather than moving ahead to work with longer words.

There are more challenges ahead for nonblenders. In the next unit, Unit 7, students will be introduced to digraphs, in which two letters stand for a single sound. Digraphs introduce an additional complexity requiring students not only to blend but also to break words into segments—to determine when a single letter stands for a sound all by itself and when it is part of a digraph or “letter team.” Students who have not mastered blending with single-letter spellings are likely to struggle even more when digraphs are added to the mix.

In short, it is critical to have all students blending, either before beginning this unit or, at the latest, by the end of this unit.

CONSONANT CLUSTERS

A consonant cluster consists of two or more consonant sounds, one after another, without an intervening vowel sound. (In other programs, these may be called blends.) In the word stop, the first two letters represent an initial consonant cluster. In the word ask, the last two letters represent a final consonant cluster. In both cases, the cluster is a multisound segment. Although sometimes initially difficult for students to segment or hear, each letter in these clusters represents a separate, individual sound. In the lessons that follow, initial clusters are introduced first and final clusters are introduced a few lessons later. Students continue to complete chaining and dictation exercises, but will now move forward with CCVC, CVCC, CCCVC, CVCCC, and CCVCC words up to a maximum length of five sounds. All of these words still have only one syllable. Note: ‘C’ stands for consonant sound and ‘V’ stands for vowel sound. So, CVCCC stands for a word like pants.

LETTER NAMES

In earlier units, instruction focused on sounds and on the graphemes representing those sounds. You were encouraged to avoid using letter names so students would not confuse the letter names with the sounds the letters represent. Most students should now have developed a solid command of letter-sound correspondences and blending skills. It is now less likely they will confuse the letter names with the sounds. The letter names are introduced and practiced several times in this unit.

From this point on, you should use letter names whenever it is convenient to do so. One of the reasons letter names are introduced at this point is because it will be helpful to have them available as you begin to introduce digraphs and other multisyllabic units. For example, when describing the ‘ng’ spelling for /ng/ as in sing, it is useful to be able to say the spelling consists of an ‘n’ followed by a ‘g’. Likewise, when describing the ‘bb’ spelling for /b/, it is helpful to be able to say this spelling consists of two ‘b’s.

THE TRICKY SPELLING LESSON

A tricky spelling is a spelling unit (either a single letter or multiletter grapheme) that is ambiguous because it can be pronounced more than one way. The digraph ‘ow’ is an example of a tricky spelling. It is ambiguous because it can be pronounced /oe/ as in snow or /ou/ as in plow. The letter ‘a’ is a tricky spelling as well. It is a highly ambiguous spelling unit that can be pronounced /a/ as in apple, /æ/ as in able, /ə/ (schwa) as in about, or /o/ as in father.

The point of the Tricky Spelling Lesson is to make students aware of a particular tricky spelling and give them opportunities to practice sounding out words and try different pronunciations. When teaching the Tricky Spelling Lesson, you will first make students aware of the dilemma by showing them a spelling that can stand for two (or more) different sounds. You will then give students a sense of which pronunciation is most likely. Then you will guide students through some exercises to practice reading sentences containing a word with the tricky spelling.

The first tricky spelling is taught in this unit, when students learn that ‘s’ is sometimes sounded /z/, as in is, his, and runs.

TRICKY SPELLING ‘S’ PRONOUNCED /Z/

One of the most frequent spelling alternatives in the English language involves the letter ‘s’. The ‘s’ is generally pronounced /s/ when it follows a voiceless sound (ships, hits, rocks) and /z/ when it follows a voiced sound (dogs, runs, plays).

Students already know about ‘s’ pronounced as /s/. In this unit, they will learn that ‘s’ is sometimes pronounced /z/, especially at the end of words. They will encounter this ‘s’ spelling for /z/ in plurals and verb forms. It also occurs in some very common English words, including is, as, his, and has. All four of these words are introduced in this unit.

FROM BIG BOOKS TO INDEPENDENT READING

In the past two units you have shared Big Books (or images from the Teacher Resources section of the CKLA™ website at ckla.amplify.com) with students. In this unit you will work with a Big Book (or images from the website) again, but students will also begin doing independent reading in the decodable student Readers. The first decodable Reader is called Kit. This Reader is available as a Big Book, on the Teacher Resources website, and as a student Reader.

For the first three stories in the Reader, you will model the reading process by presenting each story as a “Demonstration Story” using the Big Book or the images from the Teacher Resources website. Present an initial reading without interruption. Present a second reading during which you draw attention to new spellings, uppercase letters, punctuation, and other unfamiliar content. A number of discussion questions are also included for each story. Please be sure to ask these questions orally because they contain a number of nondecodable words.

In the remaining lessons you will also present the stories initially as demonstration stories. Then you will ask students to read the stories independently in their Readers. These stories are 100% decodable, which means students should be able to read all of the words via blending.

The first few stories in the Reader are, by necessity, very short and simple. The length of the stories and the level of complexity will increase as students learn more letter-sound correspondences and augment their decoding skills.

CORE VOCABULARY

Beginning in this unit, a reading lesson may be preceded by a core vocabulary list, with simple definitions, that is also depicted in a tiered chart similar to the Vocabulary Chart that precedes read-aloud lessons in the Knowledge Strand.

Vocabulary Chart for “Kit’s Pants”
Vocabulary Type	Tier 3 Domain-Specific Words	Tier 2 General Academic Words	Tier 1 Everyday Speech Words
Core Vocabulary
Multiple-Meaning Core Vocabulary Words			camp
Sayings and Phrases	can’t stand

As noted earlier, students should be able to read (i.e., decode) all words in a given story via blending, based on the code knowledge they have learned. While the stories are simple, it is possible that some words may pose a challenge in terms of meaning for some or all students. Depending on your students’ needs, you may choose to preview these vocabulary words before students read the story.

It is recommended that you use the following routine to preview words that may be unfamiliar to your students:

- Write the word on the board/chart paper and encourage students to blend/sound out the word as a class.
- Use the word in an oral sentence and ask students if they can explain (or demonstrate) the meaning of the word. If students are unable to provide an explanation, use the definition provided in the lesson to clarify the word.

Note: The provided definitions are intended to be used orally only. Do not provide written definitions, as many of the words used in the definitions are not yet decodable.

- Ask students to Turn and Talk to a partner, each using the word in an oral sentence.
- Tell students to turn to the Reader page on which the word is used for the first time. Ask them to point to the word and then read the entire sentence aloud.

See sidebars in given lessons for additional suggestions in presenting certain core vocabulary to ELL students.

You will also note that the Vocabulary Chart sometimes identifies words used in the story that may have multiple meanings, as well as phrases or idioms which may be confusing for some students. Explain and discuss these words in the context of the story, as it is read. However, if students will be reading the story only as partners or independently, you may choose to also preview and preteach some or all of these words and phrases.

READING PRACTICE

In Unit 6, students will practice reading aloud from their Readers.

There are many ways to set up reading practice, and most of these are consistent with the CKLA philosophy of instruction. Partner reading, in which students sit in groups of two and take turns reading aloud to one another, is particularly recommended. Reading aloud is important because it allows you to determine if students are successfully turning print into speech; it makes reading difficulties audible and detectable in a way silent reading does not.

It is also beneficial for students to read stories more than once, preferably two to four times over a period of several days. The National Reading Panel (2000) found this kind of repeated reading led to gains in reading achievement.

Reading in assigned pairs provides each student the opportunity to spend almost half of the available time reading aloud. Contrast this with round-robin reading done with the whole class, in which an individual student might only be reading 1/20th of the time. Students participating in partner reading will get much more reading practice and spend more time on task than students participating in round-robin reading.

Partner reading is recommended, but it is recognized that it may not be suitable for all students, particularly in Kindergarten. CKLA teachers are encouraged to exercise discretion and arrange reading practice as seems best for the particular classroom or group of students, using any combination of teacher modeling, choral or echo reading, partner reading, and small group work appropriate for your classroom. As you make arrangements for reading practice, keep the following principles in mind:

- Be sure students see you modeling reading.
- Students should have a lot of time to practice reading by themselves.

- Students should read aloud.
- Provide time for the stories to be read more than once.
- Require students to read only decodable materials until they begin to request trade books and demonstrate repeated success reading those books.

In this unit you are encouraged to create small groups to provide differentiated instruction. In CKLA materials, Group 1 will always refer to the group that includes students who may need remediation and Group 2 will always refer to students who are better able to work independently. You will have opportunity to work with both groups of students, though the lessons often suggest working with each group on alternate days (i.e., you may work with Group 1 one day and then Group 2 the following day).

There are alternatives to the traditional ability-level groupings in which the strongest readers are grouped together in one group and weaker readers in other groups. Some teachers have found partner pairings joining a strong and weak reader can be very effective provided the stronger student is willing to help the weaker student. Consider any grouping or partnering as flexible and subject to change.

You may want to note in Lesson 17 that you should not put away the Readers from Unit 6. In Unit 7, students will not read from the new Reader until Lesson 9. You may wish to have the Unit 6 Readers available for students to reread until Lesson 9 of Unit 7.

REPEATED ORAL READING

Repeated oral reading will be an important exercise from this point on in the program. It is a regular exercise in CKLA partly because the National Reading Panel (2000) found that repeated oral reading is an effective method of building fluency.

Students benefit from reading the same story several times. Successive readings allow them to read with more overall understanding and help them develop rapid and accurate decoding skills. The lessons have been designed so students have an opportunity to read most stories multiple times.

The stories in Kit and the Readers that follow are 100% decodable provided they are read on or after the appropriate day of instruction. In other words, the story for Lesson 12 will be 100% decodable when Lesson 12 is taught, but the story for Lesson 13 may not be. It is best for students to avoid reading ahead because later stories often contain spellings and Tricky Words not yet taught.

Please make a conscious effort to listen to each student read aloud to you, on a weekly basis. At the start of each week, you may want to prepare the weekly Anecdotal Reading Record provided in Teacher Resources.

As you listen to each student, make note of any words misread, writing what the student said paired with the actual word. See the Formative Assessments and Additional Support section in this Introduction. Also note the approach the student uses when he or she encounters a word he or she does not immediately recognize: does he or she systematically try to sound the word, letter by letter, guess based on the initial sound of the word, or fail to respond at all? Look for any patterns in an individual student's errors or in the class as a whole. Consider providing additional practice in specific areas of weakness using the Additional Support activities at the end of each lesson or the Pausing Point activities as soon as you identify a weakness, rather than waiting until the end of the unit to provide remediation.

Remember that at this stage of early reading, nearly all students will read haltingly, sounding out each word letter by letter. Fluency will improve as students have more and more opportunities to practice reading orally.

Solidifying decoding skills and building fluency through repeated oral reading are major goals of this program.

STORY QUESTIONS

Comprehension is the goal of learning to read and comprehension and discussion questions are included in the Teacher Guide. In this unit, our primary focus is on literal questions about the character(s), setting, and events that can be answered by citing a specific text reference or illustration.

In some instances, particularly with questions about the setting, you may note that a question is classified as "Inferential." In these cases, students must infer what the setting is by referring to multiple story illustrations.

Take this opportunity to teach students to answer in complete sentences using the question stem as the initial part of the answer. This training will serve students extremely well as they progress through their school career.

Each story generally has three to five questions. Make a conscious effort to call on different students each day to answer questions to ensure that all students are engaged. A Discussion Questions Observation Record is included in the Teacher Resources section so you can monitor and record each student's comprehension; a sample of a completed Record and a blank Record are included. Over the course of a week, you should be able to collect data on each student's response to a question at least one or two times.

As the unit progresses, analyze trends in student performance, making notes, for example, on whether the student consistently responds in a complete sentence. Is the student able to identify the specific portion of the text or illustration that provided the answer to the question? Look for patterns in individual student errors or in the class as a whole, such as difficulties in answering particular types of questions about character(s), setting, or events.

Keep in mind that the stories in this first Reader are quite simple. Students who have difficulty answering the story questions may have more fundamental difficulties related to decoding and reading certain words.

You are strongly encouraged to use these questioning and answering techniques. In Unit 7, students will learn how to answer more inferential questions and in Unit 8, students will add evaluative question skills to their repertoire.

You may certainly ask additional questions. Our intention is not to script your discussion but to give you a resource. Ask students questions about the stories they are preparing to read (prediction). Or ask them questions about stories they have already read (recall, inferential, evaluative, compare/contrast, or descriptive questions). Students who engage with text and understand that it conveys meaning develop strong comprehension skills.

PHRASES AND WIGGLE CARDS

At the end of each lesson, under the Additional Support heading, a box titled “Phrases and Wiggle Cards” is included. In this unit, students can decode enough words to either read simple phrases, or read and act out phrases. Phrases that can be read and acted out can be copied on index cards and used as Wiggle Cards. You may use Wiggle Cards in a variety of ways:

- Write the Wiggle Cards and phrases on large index cards, punch a hole in the corner and place them on a ring. They will be readily available for practice during the school day at various times when there are only a few moments between activities.
- Use the Wiggle Cards and phrases while students are standing in line waiting for an activity to begin.
- Use Wiggle Cards and phrases mid-lesson and/or during Assessment time to give students a brief break with a movement activity to refocus attention.

TRICKY AND HIGH-FREQUENCY WORDS

Three new tricky words (i.e., words that are either not decodable at all or words that have at least some parts that are not yet decodable based on students’ current code knowledge) are introduced in the Picture Reader and Activity Pages in Unit 6: I, are, little.

If you have a Tricky Word Wall in your classroom, you may want to write each of these words on yellow index cards and add them to the wall as they are introduced.

Included for your reference are the words from the Dolch Sight Word List and Fry’s Instant Words List that students should be able to read at the beginning and end of Unit 6.

As of the beginning of this unit, students should be able to read 36 words from the Dolch Sight Word List (Preprimer–Grade 2) and 31 words from Fry’s Instant Words List (first 300 words), as follows:

At the beginning of Unit 6:

	Dolch Words	Fry Words
Tricky Words	a, blue, look, one, the, three, two, yellow	a, look, one, the, two, three
Decodable Words	am, an, and, at, big, but, can, cut, did, get, had, him, hot, if, in, it, its, let, not, on, ran, red, run, sit, six, ten, up, us, yes	an, and, at, big, but, can, cut, did, get, got, had, him, if, in, it, its, let, man, men, not, on, run, set, sit, up, us

By the end of this unit, students should be able to read the following new words from each of these respective lists, representing a total of 53 Dolch Words and 53 Fry Words.

By the end of Unit 6:

	New Dolch Words	New Fry Words
Tricky Words	are, I, little	are, I, little
Decodable Words	as, ask, best, fast, has, help, his, is, jump, just, must, stop, went	as, ask, end, hand, has, help, his, is, just, land, last, left, list, must, nest, plant, stop, went

Note the significant increase in words on both lists by the end of the unit, despite the fact that only three new Tricky Words are taught in this unit. This is because students are taught to read words with consonant clusters in Unit 6.

It is highly recommended that you assess each student’s recognition of these words at both the beginning and end of the unit on one of these lists. Assessment materials are included in Teacher Resources. You may also choose to copy and send home the family letter and flash cards included in Teacher Resources.

FORMATIVE ASSESSMENTS AND ADDITIONAL SUPPORT

Throughout this unit, formative assessments are clearly marked for monitoring student performance and progress in the following key skills:

- oral blending of words with consonant clusters
- reading and spelling of words with consonant clusters
- reading words with the tricky spelling 's' > /s/ or /z/
- oral reading of decodable stories
- story comprehension of discussion questions

Observation records for recording student performance are included in Teacher Resources. Both a sample of a completed Anecdotal Reading Record and a blank form for making notes on each student's oral reading of decodable stories are also located in Teacher Resources.

You may want to have two separate clipboards—one for the Oral Blending Observation Record and the Discussion Questions Observation Record, and the second to hold the Anecdotal Reading Records—one for each student in the class, arranged in alphabetical order. Careful organization of these materials will mean that they are readily accessible when needed, so they can be used most efficiently.

To monitor student progress in reading and spelling of words with consonant clusters and reading words with the tricky spelling 's' > /s/ or /z/, teachers will be prompted to collect completed activity pages.

Quick "Checks for Understanding" are also designated in various lessons to monitor students' understanding of the letter names and rhyming.

Careful attention to this information collected on a daily basis will enable teachers to quickly determine which students may benefit from reteaching and/or more practice in particular skills, using the Additional Support activities found at the end of each lesson.

STUDENT PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT

An end-of-unit Student Performance Assessment is included in Lesson 17. It assesses students' knowledge of letter names and rhymes (Part A and Part B, respectively) with the use of printed activity pages. This is followed by a two-part assessment of students' ability to read words with consonant clusters (Part C).

Part C, Part 1 is required for all students. This assessment directs you to pronounce ten one-syllable CVC, CCVC, or CVCC words. For each word you say, students are to circle the word on their activity page.

Part C, Part 2 requires you to assess students individually if they scored 7 or fewer points on Part 1. Each student reads a list of ten words.

Be sure to record the results on the Unit 6 Assessment Record Sheet provided in the Teacher Resources section of this Teacher Guide.

Review and analyze all students' assessment results. Pause for one to three days to provide enrichment and remedial practice using materials from the Pausing Point, the Additional Support section of each lesson, and/or the Assessment and Remediation Guide, before proceeding to the next unit. Note that you will be prompted during the Pausing Point to assess students' recognition of high-frequency words using the Dolch or Fry Word Assessment Record in Teacher Resources.

TEACHER RESOURCES

At the end of each unit, you will find a section titled Teacher Resources. This section includes forms and charts which may be useful, including the following:

- Oral Blending Observation Record
- Discussion Questions Observation Record
- Anecdotal Reading Record
- Unit 6 Additional Support Activity Pages
- Unit 6 Activity Book Answer Key

ASSESSMENT AND REMEDIATION GUIDE

A separate publication, the Assessment and Remediation Guide, provides further guidance in assessing, analyzing, and remediating specific skills. This guide can be found online at ckla.amplify.com. Refer to this URL for additional resources, mini-lessons, and activities to assist students who experience difficulty with any of the skills presented in this unit.

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS FOR UNIT 6

The following additional materials are needed in Unit 6; the number in parentheses indicates the first lesson in which the item is used.

- clipboard(s) for teacher for Oral Blending Observation Record, Discussion Questions Observation Record, and Anecdotal Reading Records. (1)
- pocket chart and stand (1)
- yellow index cards (1)
- white (or green) index cards (1)
- primary pencils for all students (2)
- display size lowercase alphabet strip (1)
- unlined large index cards or card stock (6)
- primary writing paper (8)
- digital components: Throughout this unit and others, whenever the lesson suggests the teacher model the completion of an activity page or prepare a chart to display, you may use the digital version provided in the digital components for this unit. (1)

TRICKY WORD

Introduce I

PRIMARY FOCUS OF LESSON

Foundational Skills

Students will demonstrate knowledge of letter-sound correspondences and orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c; RF.K.3a,b]

Students will recognize and name the lowercase letters of the alphabet. [RF.K.1d]

Students will read the Tricky Word I. [RF.K.3c]

Reading

As the teacher reads “Kit” aloud, students will track print from top to bottom, left to right; identify periods at the end of sentences; and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events. [RF.K.1a–c; L.K.2b; RL.K.1; RL.K.3; RL.K.7]

FORMATIVE ASSESSMENT

ADVANCE PREPARATION

Foundational Skills

- Select the Large Letter Cards for the letters listed in the Lesson at a Glance.
- Prepare and display a lowercase alphabet strip (or write the lowercase letters in alphabetical order on the board/chart paper). Be sure to use a lowercase alphabet strip because uppercase letters are not taught until Unit 9.
- At the start of each week, prepare the Oral Blending Observation Record provided in Teacher Resources, listing all student names in the far left column. Over the course of the week, systematically provide each student an opportunity to blend two or three words during the Warm-Up: Oral Blending Part A segment of the lessons. Make notes regarding each student's performance.

➤ Digital Component 1.1

- If you do not have a Tricky Word Wall, write the Tricky Words from the chart in Introduce Tricky Word: l (Digital Component 1.1) on the board/chart paper or display the digital version.
- Prepare to load “Skills 6” from the Picture Reader in Teacher Resources at ckla.amplify.com.

➤ Digital Component 1.2

- Create an enlarged version of Activity Page 1.1 (Digital Component 1.2) to display for Picture Reader and Activity Page 1.1, or use the digital version.

Reading

- You may wish to start a word wall specific to the Kit Reader. Add words to it throughout Unit 6 lessons. Be sure to use white (or green) index cards to indicate that the words are decodable.
- Prepare to load Kit from the Teacher Resources at ckla.amplify.com or display the Big Book.
- Prepare to display the story “Kit” from the Kit Big Book or the Teacher Resources at ckla.amplify.com.
- At the start of each week, prepare the Discussion Questions Observation Record provided in Teacher Resources. Over the course of the week, be sure to ask each student to respond to at least one discussion question. Make notes regarding each student's ability to respond in complete sentences and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events.

Universal Access

- Bring in pictures of the following body parts to use with the last five words of Oral Blending: arms, legs, a chest, heads, and a shoulder.
- Bring in pictures of people doing flips to use in Preview Core Vocabulary.

Start Lesson

Lesson 1: Tricky Word I

Foundational Skills

Primary Focus

Students will demonstrate knowledge of letter-sound correspondences and orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c; RF.K.3a,b]

Students will recognize and name the lowercase letters of the alphabet. [RF.K.1d]

Students will read the Tricky Word I. [RF.K.3c]

WARM-UP (10 MIN.)

Oral Blending

Note: In this exercise, students will practice blending sounds into three-, four-, and five-sound words. Special emphasis is placed on blending consonant clusters. Blending consonant clusters is a significant new skill in this unit.

- Tell students you will say sounds for them to blend into words.
- Be sure to use the finger blending motion depicted. Finger blending indicates how many sounds are in a word and easily allows for words with up to five sounds.

- Say each word in a segmented fashion. The first five words are in a chain. The last five words refer to the same conceptual category. After students have blended all of the words, have students tell you the category.

Note: There is no /sh/ sound in Spanish. You pronounce the /sh/ in shoulder by letting air out between your teeth. Notice how you don't press your tongue against the top of your mouth and push like you do to make the /ch/ sound. You can stretch out the /sh/ sound. Demonstrate how to make the /sh/ sound.

Foundational Skills

Foundational Literacy Skills

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students the next set of words are all names of parts of the body. Show each body part picture and name the part. Direct students to point to the same part(s) on their own bodies and repeat the name. Proceed with the blending of the last five words.

(3) /b/ /i/ /g/ > big

(3) /ar/ /m/ /z/ > arms

(3) /b/ /a/ /g/ > bag

(4) /l/ /e/ /g/ /z/ > legs

(4) /b/ /r/ /a/ /g/ > brag

(4) /ch/ /e/ /s/ /t/ > chest

(4) /b/ /r/ /a/ /t/ > brat

(4) /h/ /e/ /d/ /z/ > heads

(5) /b/ /r/ /a/ /t/ /s/ > brats

(5) /sh/ /oe/ /l/ /d/ /er/ > shoulder

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record.

Sound/Spelling Review

- Review the Large Letter Cards listed in the Lesson at a Glance.
- Tell students you will show a card with a spelling and ask them to provide the sound.
- Hold up the Large Letter Card for 'm'.
- Have students say the sound, not the letter name.
- Continue with the remaining cards.

Large Letter Cards

INTRODUCE LETTER NAMES (15 MIN.)

- Write the word cat on the board/chart paper. Tell students the spellings and sound pictures they have been learning are also called letters. They have been learning the sounds for letters so they can blend and read words.
- Tell students this word has three letters. Encourage students to sound out each letter as you point to it.
- Explain that in addition to representing sounds, letters also have names. (You may want to acknowledge students who may have learned the letter names at home or in preschool.) Tell students you are going to teach all of the letter names during the next two weeks.
- Point to the first letter in cat, asking students what sound it stands for. Then say, “The name of this letter is ‘c’. The letter ‘c’ is a picture of the /k/ sound.” Repeat with the remaining letters in the word.
- Refer to the lowercase alphabet strip (or write the lowercase letters in alphabetical order on the board/chart paper). Point and say these are all the letters of the English alphabet. Explain that when written this way, in this order, the letters are in “alphabetical order.”
- Say each letter name as you point to it, asking students to repeat each letter name after you. Repeat at least one more time, continuing to point to each letter as you say its name.
- Tell students another way to remember the names of the letters of the alphabet is to sing the names in alphabetical order. Sing “The Alphabet Song” slowly, pointing to each letter as you sing its name. Be careful to enunciate each letter name using hand-clapping to prevent “elemenohpee”—as some students tend to think it is one letter name. Sing, “el, (clap), em, (clap), en, (clap), oh, (clap), pee, (clap).”
- Ask students to sing the song with you one more time, as you point to each letter.

Check for Understanding

Write the word fit on the board/chart paper. Point to 'f'; choose a student and ask him or her to provide the sound for 'f'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the student's response. Select a second student to provide the letter name for 'f'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the letter name provided. Repeat the same process with the rest of the letters in the word. Then ask all students to read the word aloud.

INTRODUCE TRICKY WORD: I (20 MIN.)

- Remind students that Tricky Words have parts that are not pronounced as we would expect them to be pronounced. These parts do not “follow the rules,” so students must simply memorize how to pronounce and read these parts of the words.
- Review the previously taught Tricky Words on the Tricky Word Wall or use the digital version using established procedures. Be sure to point out that the tricky parts of each word are underlined.

- | | |

| 1. the | 5. blue |
| 2. look | 6. two |
| 3. one | 7. three |
| 4. a | 8. yellow |

- Write the letter 'i' on the board/chart paper and ask students how they would pronounce the sound of this letter (i.e., /i/). Now write the word I on the board/chart paper, pointing out that this is the uppercase form of 'i.' Explain that when the uppercase 'I' is written as a single letter, it is a Tricky Word and is pronounced /ie/. Underline I to indicate that it is tricky.
- Point to the word I as you say the following sentence, “I like ice cream.” Ask students to Turn and Talk, completing the sentence frame: “I like . . .”
- Write the Tricky Word I on the yellow card and add it to the Tricky Word Wall.

- Display page 55 of the digital Picture Reader and ask students to turn to the same page in their own copies of the Picture Reader.
- Point to each of the following new pictures explaining that students should “read” these pictures as follows:

Picture Reader Key

 swim	 jump
 run	 throw

- Point to / at the top of the page, asking all students to read the word aloud. Remind students that in their Picture Reader, Tricky Words or parts of Tricky Words are underlined to remind them that they must pay attention and memorize these word parts, not just sound them out.
- Tell students to turn to the next page and follow along in their Picture Reader as you call on individual students to read each sentence aloud.
- Remind students to run a finger under the text and pictures as they read. Continue reading through page 62.

➤ Digital Component 1.2

- Distribute and display Activity Page 1.1 and complete each item as a class. Ask one student to read each sentence aloud and direct all students to then say and write the word / in the blank space to complete the sentence.

Lesson 1: “Kit” Reading

[RF.K.1a–c; L.K.2b; RL.K.1; RL.K.3; RL.K.7]

INTRODUCE THE READER AND STORY (5 MIN.)

- Load or display the Kit Big Book.
- Using the Big Book, point out the title of the book, printed on the cover. Tell students a book’s title tells what the book is about. Ask students to read the title of the book. Tell students the book is about a little girl named Kit.
- Review the parts of the Big Book with students (cover page, title page, back cover, page numbers).

Big Book

Preview Core Vocabulary

- Before reading today’s story, preview the following vocabulary with students;

flip—v., to turn over quickly (6)

Example: I flip the page in the book.

flop—v., to drop down suddenly (6)

Example: I flop down on the couch after school.

Vocabulary Chart for “Kit”

Vocabulary Type	Tier 3 Domain-Specific Words	Tier 2 General Academic Words	Tier 1 Everyday Speech Words
Core Vocabulary			flip
Multiple-Meaning Core Vocabulary Words			flop
Sayings and Phrases

- Tell students you are going to write several words from today’s story on the board/chart paper before they listen to the story.
- Write the first word, flip, on the board/chart paper, letter by letter, pausing to ask students to provide the sound of each letter as you write it. Ask students to blend and read the word after you have finished writing the complete word.
- Explain the meaning of the word and ask students if they have seen someone doing a flip. Discuss situations when they may have seen someone do a flip.
- Repeat the same process with the word flop.

Purpose for Reading

- Tell students you will read a story about the things Kit can do. Tell students that Kit is the main character. (A character is a person in a book or story.) Ask students to pay special attention to the story so they can tell you some things Kit can do.

TEACHER DEMONSTRATION (10 MIN.)

Read “Kit”

Note: In this story, the uppercase letter ‘K’ is used. Uppercase ‘K’ looks very much like lowercase ‘k’. It is not likely to cause students any difficulties, but you may want to point it out.

- Load or display the story “Kit” from the Kit Big Book.
- Have students read the title of the story.
- Read the story “Kit” aloud once without interruption, running a finger beneath the words as you read them.
- Tell students stories are made up of sentences and each sentence begins with an uppercase letter and ends with a period. Use a sentence from the story to demonstrate.
- Explain that a sentence is a complete thought. The period at the end of a sentence indicates it is time to stop, take a breath, and think about what the thought means. A period is a punctuation mark.
- Read the story a second time, pausing to point out sentences, capital letters, and periods.
- Finally, read the story again, with student participation.

Wrap-Up Discussion

- Discuss the following questions as a class. Students should respond in complete sentences. Ask a student to come to the Big Book and read the sentence/point to the illustration that answers the question

Discussion Questions for “Kit”

Note: These questions are intended to be discussed orally.

1. Literal. Who is the main character of the story?

» Kit is the main character of the story.

Who is Kit?

» Kit is the main character of the story. Other possible answers: Kit is a girl. Kit is a child.

2. Literal. What does the story say Kit can do?

» Answers may vary, but could include: Kit can run; Kit can skip; Kit can flip and flop; Kit can swim.

3. Inferential. (Tell students the setting of a book or story is where the story takes place.) Is the setting of the story a warm place or cold place? You may look at the illustrations to help answer this question. (If needed, prompt students to look at how Kit is dressed outdoors in the different illustrations.)

» The setting is a warm place.

4. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Reading

Reading Closely

Entering/Emerging

Ask yes/no questions using simple phrases: “Is Kit the main character?” “Can Kit flip and flop?”

Transitioning/Expanding

When asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: “In the water, Kit can . . .”

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students’ responses.

Observation: Discussion Questions Observation Record

Call on a different student to answer each question. Note each student’s performance in the Discussion Questions Observation Record.

MORE HELP BLENDING THREE PHONEMES

Blending Motions for Three-Phoneme Words (Arm Motion)

Note: For lessons targeting blending three-phoneme words, utilize the gross motor hand motions first learned in Skills, Unit 2, Lesson 3. This motion prompts students to do the following motions:

1. Hold your right arm in front of your body.
2. Touch your left shoulder as you say the first of the three phonemes (e.g., /f/).
3. Touch your left elbow as you say the second of the three phonemes (e.g., /u/).
4. Touch your left wrist as you say the third of the three phonemes (e.g., /n/).
5. Slide your right hand from your left shoulder down to your left wrist as you say the entire word with the phonemes blended (e.g., fun).

- Tell students you will say sounds for them to blend into words.
- Say each word in a segmented fashion and use the gross motor hand motions previously described.

1. bat	6. lamb	11. ram
2. bad	7. lad	12. rat
3. back	8. lack	13. rag
4. bag	9. lag	14. ran
5. bass	10. laugh	15. rap

Note: If students need additional blending practice, you may refer to Section I of the Assessment and Remediation Guide for additional three-phoneme word lists.

MORE HELP BLENDING CONSONANT CLUSTERS

Find My Word

- Provide students with a copy of Activity Page TR 1.1 (Find My Word).
- Review the names of the depicted items with students.

1. bread	4. drum	7. grass
2. treats	5. crow	8. prize
3. crab	6. branch	9. prince

Foundational Literacy Skills

Manipulatives can be used to cover pictures as they are identified.

Students can also practice segmenting phonemes by breaking apart the phonemes in names of the objects on Activity Page TR 1.1.

- Now pronounce the name of an image on the page in random order, saying the phonemes with a pause in between each sound (e.g., /g/ [pause] /r/ [pause] /a/ [pause] /s/).
- Ask students to blend the phonemes, say the word, and point to the picture of the object.
- Repeat until all the pictures are identified.
- Encourage students to use the blending motions they have learned to help them blend the sounds.

Push & Say

Note: This activity is valuable for developing readiness for phonics work with four- and five-phoneme words. Representing phonemes with objects allows for cognitive focus on discriminating sounds in larger (four- and five-phoneme) words before requiring the additional demand of matching letter knowledge to those sounds.

- Provide students with a copy of Activity Page TR 1.2 (Sound Boxes) and a handful of small objects (e.g., cubes, tiles, beans, buttons, etc.) for each student.
- Tell students you will say sounds for them to blend into words.
- Use familiar blending motions (e.g., finger tapping) as you say the words in segmented fashion.
- Have students use Sound Boxes as they repeat the sounds and push an object into the boxes for each phoneme (from left to right). Students then run their finger under the boxes (from left to right) and blend the sounds to say the word. Tell students that although they may not always use every box, they should always start with the first box on the left.

Support

Demonstrate the objects being pushed from left to right from the students' perspective, which will be right to left from your perspective if you are sitting across from students. Tell students they will not always use all of the sound boxes.

Initial r- Chain

1. cop > crop > drop > drip > grip > rip > rap > cap
2. pop > prop > drop > drip > rip > rib > crib > crab > cab > tab > tap > top
3. tap > trap > trip > grip > rip > rim > brim > trim > tram > ram > rap

Note: All chains are designed to be looped. If you get to the end and wish to continue, you may simply repeat the chain. However, some chains are too lengthy to incorporate more than one consonant cluster. Chains may be sectioned if students do not sustain attention for the entire chain.

MORE HELP WITH LETTER NAMES

“The Alphabet Song”

- Sing “The Alphabet Song” while students point to the corresponding letters on Activity Page TR 1.3 (Lowercase Alphabet Board). Letters are arranged in lines to match the pauses in the song. Note: “l-m-n-o-p” should be sung with a clap between each letter.

Letter Match

- Provide students with cut-out Lowercase Letter Cards (Activity Page TR 1.4) to match with the letters on the Lowercase Alphabet Board. Make it game-like by putting select letters in a bag and taking turns selecting one to match to the board.

I Spy

- Using the Lowercase Alphabet Board, provide clues for students to identify letters. Students should point to and name the letter they identify. Below are a few sample clues:
 - I spy the letter your name starts with.
 - I spy two letters made with a tall line and a circle (i.e., ‘b’ and ‘d’).
 - I spy the letter after ‘t’.

ADVANCE PREPARATION

Foundational Skills

- Select the Large Letter Cards for the letters listed in the Lesson at a Glance.
- Display a lowercase alphabet strip or write the lowercase letters on the board/chart paper.
- Prepare the pocket chart as shown.

Reading

- Prepare to display the story “Kit and Stan” from the Kit Big Book or the Teacher Resources at ckla.amplify.com.

Foundational Skills

- Prepare to divide students into small groups for differentiated instruction. Group 1 students, who are students who need more support, will work with the teacher. Group 2 students will work independently.

➤ Digital Component 2.2

- Small Group 1: Create an enlarged version of Activity Page 2.1 (Digital Component 2.2) to review with Small Group 1, or use the digital version.

➤ Digital Component 2.1

- Small Group 2: Create the chart with sentences (Digital Component 2.1) for Small Group 2 on the board/chart paper or use the digital version.

Universal Access

- Bring in a picture of a tree that shows leaves, branches, and the trunk as well as a picture of a small twig to use with the last five words in Oral Blending.

WARM-UP (10 MIN.)

Oral Blending

- Use the previously established blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain and the last five words belong to the same category. Have students tell you the category.

/l/	/e/	/g/	leg

Foundational Literacy Skills

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students that the next set of words to be blended are all names of parts of a tree. Point to the picture of the tree, say, "tree" and ask students to repeat. Then point to and name each part, asking students to repeat. Proceed with blending the last five words.

(3) /l/ /e/ /g/ > leg

(3) /l/ /o/ /g/ > log

(5) /b/ /r/ /a/ /n/ /ch/ > branch

(5) /t/ /r/ /u/ /ng/ /k/ > trunk

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record.

Sound/Spelling Review

- Review the Large Letter Cards listed in the Lesson at a Glance.
- Tell students you will show a card with a spelling and they should provide the sound.
- Hold up the Large Letter Card for 'm'.
- Have students say the sound, not the letter name.

REVIEW LETTER NAMES (5 MIN.)

"The Alphabet Song"

- Remind students that the spellings they have been using are also called letters and they are arranged in a special order called "alphabetical order."
- Refer to the lowercase alphabet strip you prepared in advance, and say each letter's name as you point to it.
- Tell students you are going to sing a song that will help them learn the letter names. It is called "The Alphabet Song."
- Explain that the alphabet is what we call the set of letters we use to write the sounds of English.

- Sing "The Alphabet Song" slowly, pointing to each letter as you sing its name. Be careful to enunciate each letter name using hand clapping to prevent "elemenohpee"—as some students tend to think it is one letter name. Say, "el, (clap), em, (clap), en, (clap), oh, (clap), pee, (clap)."
- Repeat the song, inviting students to sing and clap along.

POCKET CHART CHAINING FOR SPELLING (15 MIN.)

Note: In this chaining exercise, you will use words with up to four sounds containing initial consonant clusters.

- Point to the letters and have students say the sounds, not the letter names.
- Say the word sip and then break it into its three sounds: /s/ . . . /i/ . . . /p/.
- Repeat /s/ and ask students to find the spelling for /s/ on the pocket chart.
- Have a student identify the 's' card and place it in the middle of the pocket chart.
- Repeat for the remaining two sounds in the word.
- Model reading the word, letter sound by letter sound, to check for spelling accuracy.
- Say to students, "If that is sip, who can show me sap?"
- Select a student to come to the pocket chart and replace the picture of /i/ with the picture of /a/.
- After changing the word, say, "Which letter did we change to make sip into sap?" Repeat this process with each word change in the activity.
- When you come to the four-sound words, tell students some words have two consonant sounds at the beginning.

1. sip > sap > sat > slat > spat > spot > slot > slit > slip > slop > stop
2. dip > rip > drip > drop > prop > plop > flop > slop > slip > slap

Pocket Chart Setup

Check for Understanding

Monitor students' performance as they move from one word to the next, especially with regard to the consonant clusters.

Lesson 2: "Kit and Stan"

Reading

Primary Focus: As the teacher reads "Kit and Stan" aloud, students will track print from top to bottom and left to right; identify periods at the end of sentences; and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events.

INTRODUCE THE STORY (5 MIN.)

Preview Vocabulary

- Before reading today's story, preview the following vocabulary with students.

hid—v., past tense of hide; to keep from view (12)

Example: I hid under the bed.

Vocabulary Chart for "Kit and Stan"

Vocabulary Type	Tier 3 Domain-Specific Words	Tier 2 General Academic Words	Tier 1 Everyday Speech Words
Core Vocabulary			hid
Multiple-Meaning Core Vocabulary Words
Sayings and Phrases

- Tell students you are going to write a word from today’s story on the board/ chart paper before they listen to the story.
- Write the word hid on the board/chart paper, letter by letter, pausing to ask students to provide the sound of the letter as soon as you write it. Ask students to blend and read the word after you have finished writing it.
- Explain the meaning of the word and ask students if they have ever hidden. Discuss situations when they may have seen someone hide.

Purpose for Reading

- Tell students they will read about Kit playing a game with her friend Stan. Ask students to pay special attention to the story so they can tell you what game they think Kit and Stan are playing.

TEACHER DEMONSTRATION (10 MIN.)

Read "Kit and Stan"

Note: In this story, the uppercase letters 'K' and 'S' are used. Both are similar to lowercase letters. You may want to point out that these uppercase letters are used in the characters' names (i.e., Kit and Stan).

- Load the digital version of the story “Kit and Stan” from the Kit Big Book.
- Have students read the title of the story.
- Read the story “Kit and Stan” once without interruption, running a finger beneath the words as you read them.
- Remind students that stories are made up of sentences, and each sentence begins with an uppercase letter and ends with a period.
- Also remind students that a sentence is a complete thought. The period at the end of a sentence indicates it is time to stop, take a breath, and think about the meaning of the sentence. A period is a punctuation mark.
- Read the story a second time, pausing to point out sentences, capital letters, and periods.
- Finally, read the story again, having students read individual sentences.

Wrap-Up

- Discuss the following questions as a class. Students should respond in complete sentences. Ask a student to come to the Big Book and read the sentence/point to the illustration that answers the question.

Reading

Exchanging Information and Ideas

Entering/Emerging

Reframe questions as simple yes/no questions: "Did Kit hide behind a tree?" "Do Kit and Stan play inside?"

Transitioning/Expanding

After asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: "When Kit ran and hid, she hid . . ."

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students' responses.

Discussion Questions for "Kit and Stan"

Reminder: Please discuss these questions orally.

1. Literal. Who are the main characters in the story?
 - » The main characters are Kit and Stan.
2. Inferential. What are the two settings in the story? Look at the illustrations to answer this question.
 - » The settings are inside and outside.
3. Literal. Where did Kit hide?
 - » Kit hid behind a chair.
4. Literal. Where did Stan hide?
 - » Stan hid behind a tree.
5. Literal. Did Kit and Stan have fun?
 - » Yes, Kit and Stan had fun.
6. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Lesson 2: Consonant Clusters

Foundational Skills

Primary Focus: Students will read and spell one-syllable, short-vowel words with consonants and consonant clusters. [RF.K.3a,b,d; L.K.2d]

READING CONSONANT CLUSTERS (15 MIN.)

Small Group 2—Independent

- Distribute Activity Page 2.1, directing students to first read the words in the box and then write each word under the meaning picture.
- Refer to the decodable phrases you prepared in advance, telling students that if they finish early, they may read, copy, and illustrate some of the phrases.

➤ Digital Component 2.2

- Distribute and display Activity Page 2.1.
- Point to the 'f' in frog and ask students for the sound.
- Repeat with the 'r', then the 'o', and then the 'g'.

- Select a student to blend the word.
- Ask students which of the pictures match the word frog.
- Have students write frog under the picture of the frog, saying each letter's sound as they write it.
- Complete the remaining items.

MORE HELP BLENDING CONSONANT CLUSTERS

Relay Blending

- Divide the class into two teams and have each team form a line.
- Say a segmented word (e.g., /f/ ... /l/ ... /a/ ... /g/), and ask the first student in each line to blend it.
- The student who is first to blend the word correctly gets a point for his or her team. Both students should then move to the back of their respective lines.

- If neither student can blend the word correctly, have both students move to the back of their respective lines and let the next students in line take a turn.

1. flag	4. flap	7. pant
2. flat	5. plant	8. plop
3. punt	6. slot	9. fist

MORE HELP READING CONSONANT CLUSTERS

Fishing Pond

- Make four copies of Activity Page TR 2.1 (Fishing Pond Template) on card stock or construction paper.
- Write a decodable word on each fish, using the list of decodable words provided.
- Attach a paper clip to the top of each fish.
- Make a fishing pole from a pole, a string, and a magnet.
- Have students take turns fishing.
- When a student catches a fish, he or she should read the word written on the fish and copy it onto a piece of paper.

1. flag	4. stem	7. spin	10. grim
2. trap	5. plot	8. snap	11. crab
3. plus	6. drum	9. skip	12. twig

Teacher Chaining

- Write wig on the board/chart paper.
- Ask a student to read the word, first in a segmented fashion and then blended.
- Remove 'i' and add 'a' to create wag.
- As you make this change, say to students, "If that is wig, what is this?"

1. wig > wag > rag > brag > bag > bags > lags > flags > flag > flat
2. hit > fit > flit > flat > slat > slant > plant > pant > pants > punts
3. lap > flap > flaps > flips > flops > plops > pops > mops > maps > mats
4. fist > fit > flit > slit > sit > lit > lot > slot > plot > plots

- Complete the remaining chains.

MORE HELP SPELLING CONSONANT CLUSTERS

Spelling Hopscotch

- Write the vowel spellings 'i', 'e', 'a', 'u', and 'o' on circular sheets of paper, underlining each spelling. (You may wish to use gray paper so the sheets match the cards on the student Chaining Folders, but this is not essential.)
- Write the consonant spellings 's', 't', 'r', 'p', 'd', 'l', 'n', and 'b' on oval or petal-shaped white sheets of paper, underlining each spelling.
- Arrange the spellings on the floor in a flower pattern, with one of the vowel spellings in the center and the consonant spellings around the outside.
- Show students how to spell a real or silly word by starting on the outside, hopping to the inside to include the vowel spelling, and then hopping back to the outside [e.g., /p/ . . . /i/ . . . /n/ (pin)]. Repeat with one or two additional words.
- Ask a student to spell a real or silly word by starting on the outside, hopping to the inside, and then hopping back to the outside. Have the student say the sounds while hopping on the letters (e.g., /r/ . . . /i/ . . . /p/) and blend them to make the real or silly word (e.g., rip).
- Ask students whether the word is a real or silly word.
- Repeat with additional students.
- After students have made a few words, switch in a new vowel spelling.

Tap and Spell

- Distribute the following Large Letter Cards, reviewing each card's sound: 'c', 'd', 'f', 'g', 'k', 'l', 'm', 'n', 'p', 'r', 's', 't', 'w', 'a', 'e', 'i', 'o', 'u'.
- Arrange the spellings on the floor or on the board/chart paper to resemble the setup on a pocket chart or Chaining Folder—vowel spellings on top, consonant spellings below.

- Choose a student to review the vowel spellings by tapping each one with his or her foot or a yardstick and calling out the appropriate sound.
- Choose a second student to review the consonant spellings in the same fashion.
- Select a third student and call out the word wax for the student to “tap spell.” The student should use his or her foot or a yardstick to tap each letter in the word to spell it, saying the sound of each spelling as he or she taps it.
- Repeat with the remaining words listed.

WARM-UP (10 MIN.)

Oral Blending

- Use the previously established blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain and the last five words belong to the same category. Have students tell you the category.

/t/	/i/	/p/	tip

- | | |
|-------------------------------|----------------------------------|

Foundational Literacy Skills

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students the next set of words to be blended are all names of animals. Show the picture of each animal and name the animal, asking students to repeat each word. Proceed with blending the last five words."

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record.

Sound/Spelling Review

- Review the Large Letter Cards listed in the Lesson at a Glance.
- Tell students you will show a card with a spelling and students will provide the sound.
- Hold up the Large Letter Card for 'm'.
- Have students say the sound, not the letter name.

“The Alphabet Song”

- Refer to the lowercase alphabet strip or the lowercase letters on the board/chart paper, and say each letter's name as you point to it.
- Tell students you are going to sing “The Alphabet Song” again.
- Remind them that the alphabet is what we call the set of letters we use to write down the sounds of English.
- Sing “The Alphabet Song” using the procedures described in the earlier lessons of this unit.

Check for Understanding

Write the word gum on the board/chart paper. Point to 'g'; choose a student and ask him or her to provide the sound for 'g'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the student's response. Select a second student to provide the letter name for 'g'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the letter name provided. Repeat the same process with the rest of the letters in the word. Then have all students read the word aloud.

INTRODUCE TRICKY SPELLING 'S' → /Z/(10 MIN.)

- Write the letter 's' on the board/chart paper and ask students to recall the letter name.
- Ask students for the sound of this letter. (They should say /s/ as in sing.) Refer to the /s/ Sound Poster and Sound Card 11 (sit).
- Tell students the letter is usually pronounced /s/, but sometimes it is pronounced /z/.
- Tell students an 's' at the beginning of a word will almost always be sounded /s/. However, in other positions in a word, especially at the end of words, the letter 's' is sometimes pronounced /z/.
- Tell students some very common words have an 's' pronounced /z/ at the end.
- Write the following words on the board/chart paper one at a time and have students read them: is, his, as, has.
- Explain the following strategy for reading: "When you are reading and you see an 's', try pronouncing it /s/. If that does not sound right, try /z/."
- Show students Sound Card 26 (pans) and add it to the /z/ Sound Poster.

Sound Poster and Card

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES (15 MIN.)

➤ Digital Component 3.1

- Distribute and display Activity Page 3.1.
- Tell students four words are printed at the top of the activity page. Each of these words completes one of the sentences printed below.
- Ask students to read the first word.
- Complete the remaining three words in the same fashion. Be sure to point out all of the words end with /z/ spelled as 's'.
- Demonstrate reading the first sentence four times: once with the word as, once with the word his, once with the word is, and once with the word has.
- Ask students which word completes the sentence.
- Have students print the word is on the line provided, following your example.
- Continue demonstrating until students are ready to work independently.

POCKET CHART CHAINING FOR READING (10 MIN.)

Note: In this exercise you will chain four-sound words having either initial or final consonant clusters. You will also chain words having final 's' pronounced /s/ or /z/.

- Point to the letters and have students say the sounds, not the letter names. (Students should now say both /s/ and /z/ for the letter 's'.)
- Move the 'p', 'a', and 'n' cards to the center of your pocket chart to spell pan.
- Ask a student to read the word.
- Add the 't' card to the end of pan and say to the class, "If that is pan, what is this?"
- Ask a student to read the word. (pant)
- After changing the word, say, "What did we change to make pan into pant? Repeat this process with each word change in the activity.
- Complete the remaining chains.

1. pan > pant > punt > runt > bunt > bust > rust > gust > gut > nut
2. rips > tips > sips > sip > slip > slap > sap > sat > at > as > is

Pocket Chart Setup

Check for Understanding

Monitor students' performance as they move from one word to the next, especially with regard to the consonant clusters.

Lesson 3: "Kit's Hats"

Reading

Primary Focus: As the teacher reads "Kit's Hats" aloud, students will track print from top to bottom, left to right; identify apostrophes and periods at the end of sentences; and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events.

[RF.K.1a–c; L.K.2b; RL.K.1; RL.K.3; RL.K.7]

INTRODUCE THE STORY (5 MIN.)

Note: In this story, the uppercase letters 'K' and 'H' and the spelling 's' for the sound /z/ are used. Uppercase 'H' does not look like lowercase 'h'. Tell students 'H' is another way of writing the letter 'h' (i.e., it is the uppercase version of 'h'). The uppercase 'H' is used in the title, "Kit's Hats."

Purpose for Reading

Tell students they will read a story about Kit's hats. Ask students to pay special attention to the story so they can tell you what kind of hats Kit has.

TEACHER DEMONSTRATION (5 MIN.)

Read "Kit's Hats"

- Load the digital version of the story "Kit's Hats" from the Kit Big Book.
- Have students read the title of the story.
- Read the story "Kit's Hats" once without interruption, running a finger beneath the words as you read them.

Support

Write the names of different students with an apostrophe 's' ('s) on the board/chart paper. Read the names, pointing out the 's' while pointing to something that belongs to each student (e.g., Jose's shirt, Maria's book, etc.).

Reading

Exchanging Information and Ideas

Entering/Emerging

Reframe questions as simple yes/no questions: “Does Kit have flat hats?” “Is Kit’s last hat fun?”

Transitioning/Expanding

After asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: “Kit keeps her hats on her . . .”

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students’ responses.

- Point to Kit’s in the title and explain the little mark in Kit’s is called an apostrophe. Have students say apostrophe.
- Tell students an apostrophe can be used to show ownership. Here the apostrophe shows the hats belong to Kit.
- Read the story a second time, pausing to point out words with apostrophes and the spelling ‘s’ pronounced /z/. Finally, read the story again, having students read individual sentences.

Wrap-Up

- Discuss the following questions as a class. Students should respond in complete sentences. Ask a student to come to the Big Book and read the sentence/point to the illustration that answers the question.

Discussion Questions for “Kit’s Hats”

1. Literal. What is the story about?
 - » The story is about Kit’s hats.
2. Literal. What kinds of hats does Kit have?
 - » Answers may vary, but could include Kit has big hats. Kit has flat hats. Kit has fun hats.
3. Inferential. Where does Kit keep her hats? Look at the illustrations to answer this question.
 - » Kit keeps her hats on her shelves.
4. Literal. Who is the main character in this story?
 - » The main character in this story is Kit.
5. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Race to the Top

- Give each student a copy of Activity Page TR 3.2 (Ladder Game Board) and small items to use as game pieces. Make one set of game cards (Activity Page TR 3.3).

Note: Copy and cut the game cards from card stock to allow for reuse.

- Place Word/Picture Cards in a container, such as a brown bag, so that students may select one card at a time.
- There are two versions of this game:
 - Read It: As cards are drawn, the word side of the card is shown to the opposing player to read. The picture allows for confirmation/correction.
 - Spell It: As cards are drawn, the picture side of the card is shown to the opposing player to be spelled (e.g., on a whiteboard). The word side allows for confirmation/correction.
- For correct answers, students move up a rung; for incorrect answers, students fall down a rung. First one to the top wins.

Word Sort

- Distribute Activity Page TR 3.4. Point out that there are words on both sides of the activity page.
- Ask students to read the first word.
- Ask students if the 's' in bugs is pronounced like the 's' in cats (/s/) or the 's' in dogs (/z/).

- Have students write bugs in the second column.
- Continue in the same fashion until students are ready to work independently.

Code Knowledge

Before today's lesson: If students attempted to read 1,000 words in a trade book, on average, between 140 and 192 of those words would be completely decodable.

After today's lesson: If students attempted to read 1,000 words in a trade book, on average, between 170 and 217 of those words would be completely decodable.

The sound /z/ is the 11th most common sound in English.

The sound /z/ is found in approximately 20 percent of English words.

The sound /z/ is spelled 's' approximately 90 percent of the time.

The spelling alternative 'zz' as in buzz is taught later in this grade.

The spelling alternatives 'se' as in cause and 'ze' as in bronze are taught in later grades.

REVIEW TRICKY SPELLING 'S' → /S/ AND /Z/ (15 MIN.)

's' > /s/ and /z/ in Plural Nouns and Verbs

- Tell students the letter 's' is added to the end of some words to show we are talking about more than one thing. (You can introduce the word plural here if you wish.)
- Write the word hat on the board/chart paper and ask students to read it.
- Write hats on the board/chart paper and explain the final 's' shows there is more than one hat.
- Point out, in this case, the 's' is pronounced /s/.
- Write the word kid on the board/chart paper and ask students to read it.
- Write the word kids on the board/chart paper and point out that the final 's' shows there is more than one kid. In this case, the 's' is pronounced /z/: /k/ /i/ /d/ /z/. Stretch out the final sound so students can hear it.
- Summarize by explaining the letter 's' for plurals is sometimes sounded /s/ and sometimes sounded /z/.
- Point out that for the next several lessons, any 's' pronounced /z/ will be printed in bold letters in stories that students read.

WORD SORT (15 MIN.)

- Distribute and display Activity Page 4.1.
- Ask students to read the first word.
- Ask students if the 's' in legs is pronounced like the 's' in cats (/s/) or the 's' in dogs (/z/).
- Have students write legs in the second column, following your example.
- Continue demonstrating until students are ready to work independently.

Note: The words in the box on the front of the activity page are plural nouns. Those in the box on the back of the activity page are verbs showing action.

Activity Page 4.1: Word Sort ('s' → /s/ or /z/)

Lesson 4: "Kit's Hats" Reading

Primary Focus: Students will read "Kit's Hats" with purpose and understanding.
[RF.K.4; RL.K.7]

REREAD "KIT'S HATS"

Partner Reading

- Tell students they will receive their own copy of the book Kit. Explain that students will have time each day to read at least one story in this book. Students will work together with a partner to read each story aloud.
- Call one student to the front of the room to act as your partner. Model for students the correct seating position for partner reading as shown in the illustration. Ensure students are sitting shoulder to shoulder to facilitate voices directed at the partner's ear.

Reader

- Demonstrate partner reading using student Readers, taking turns reading aloud from the previous story, “Kit.”
- Model running your finger under the printed text on each page, both when you are reading aloud and when you are listening to your partner; explicitly prompt your partner to do the same. You may also want to demonstrate making a mistake when reading and encourage your partner to assist and correct you.
- Review any other rules for partner reading, such as reading just loud enough so only your own partner hears you and the locations in the classroom partners are permitted to use to read together, etc.
- Divide students into pairs, distributing a copy of the Reader to each student.
- Tell students this book is the same as the Big Book from which they have been reading. It includes all of the stories, but is smaller in size so it is easy for them to handle and read. They will read the entire book over the course of this unit.

- Guide students as they explore various parts of the book, calling attention to the cover, title, and title page. Call specific attention to the table of contents, explaining this page lists the titles of all of the stories included in the book and the page number for the beginning of each story.
- Ask students to read the names of the first three titles, telling you the page number for each story. Ask students to turn to the story “Kit’s Hats” on page 23. Tell students that when they are reading with a partner, they should take turns reading one page at a time aloud. Remind them to run their finger under each word of text both as they are reading aloud and when listening to their partner.
- Tell students if they have difficulty sounding out a word, they should ask their partner for help in sounding out the word together. If they are still experiencing trouble, encourage them to raise their hands so you can assist them.
- Encourage students who finish early to reread the same story, but this time switch which pages they are reading aloud. If time still remains, tell students they may reread the stories “Kit” or “Kit and Stan.” They should not read ahead.

Observation: “Kit’s Hats” Anecdotal Reading Record

Circulate to listen to as many partner pairs as possible. Listen to each student read at least a sentence or two aloud on a weekly basis. As you listen to each student, make notes in the Anecdotal Reading Record. Look for any patterns in an individual student’s errors or in the class as a whole.

Wrap-Up Discussion

- Discuss the following questions as a class. Students should respond in complete sentences.

Reading

Exchanging Information and Ideas

Entering/Emerging

Reframe questions as simple yes/no questions: “Is this story about Kit’s cats?” “Does Kit have big hats?”

Transitioning/Expanding

After asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: “Kit’s first hat is . . .”

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students’ responses.

Discussion Questions for “Kit’s Hats”

1. Literal. What is this story about?
 - » This story is about Kit’s hats.
2. Literal. How is Kit’s hat on page 27 described in the story?
 - » That hat is big.
3. Literal. How is Kit’s hat on page 29 described in the story?
 - » That hat is flat.
4. Literal. How is Kit’s hat on page 31 described in the story?
 - » That hat is fun.
5. Inferential. How would you describe Kit’s hat on page 25? Look at the illustration to answer this question.
 - » That hat is big/flat/fun/red.
6. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Observation: Discussion Questions Observation Record

Call on a different student to answer each question. Note students’ performance in the Discussion Questions Observation Record.

Large Card Chaining

- Distribute the following Large Letter Cards, reviewing each card's sound: 'i', 'e', 'a', 'u', 'o', 'm', 'n', 't', 'd', 'c', 'g', 'f', 's', 'p', 'l', 'r', 'w'.
- Tell students if they are holding a card with a picture of a sound or letter in rim, they should go to the front of the room and stand in the order that spells rim. If necessary, help students with correct order.
- Once students are standing in place, ask a seated student to sound out the letters in the order they are arranged to verify that the students at the front have spelled rim correctly.
- Say to students, "If that is rim, show me trim."
- Students should rearrange themselves to make the new word.
- Continue this process until all of the words in the first chain have been spelled.

- Have students trade cards.
- Proceed to the next chain.
- Have any student without Large Letter Cards write the chained words on the board/chart paper or in a notebook.

1. rim > trim > trip > rip > sip > sit > spit > spot > pot > plot > plots
2. sit > sift > soft > loft > left > let > leg > led > sled > fled > fed > fend > end
3. swim > swum > scum > sum > sun > stun > spun > pun > fun > fund
4. pen > ten > tin > tip > tips > lips > flips > clips > claps > laps > maps
5. slump > lump > limp > lip > rip > drip > drop > crop > cop > cap

Guess the Word and Spell It!

- Have students take out their Chaining Folders.
- Make sure students have the following vowel spellings along the top: 'i', 'e', 'a', 'u', 'o'.
- Make sure students have the following consonant spellings along the bottom: 'm', 'n', 't' (2), 'k', 's', 'p', 'l'.
- Tell students you will ask them riddles and you want them to spell the answers on their Chaining Folders.
- Have students clear their folder after every answer.

1. Something we drink that comes from cows is called _____. (milk)
2. A bird lays its eggs in a _____. (nest)
3. The piece of clothing you wear on your legs is called a pair of _____. (pants)

Foundational Skills

Students will demonstrate knowledge of letter-sound correspondences and orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c; RF.K.3a,b]

Students will recognize and name the lowercase letters of the alphabet. [RF.K.1d]

Reading

As the teacher reads “Kit’s Cats” aloud, students will track print from top to bottom and left to right; identify periods and apostrophes; and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events.

ADVANCE PREPARATION

Foundational Skills

- Select the Large Letter Cards for the letters listed in the Lesson at a Glance.
- Prepare to display a lowercase alphabet strip or write the lowercase letters on the board/chart paper.

Reading

- Prepare to display the story “Kit’s Cats” from the Kit Big Book or the Teacher Resources at ckla.amplify.com.
- Give some thought in advance as to which students need the greatest support in reading and place them in Group 1 to read aloud to the teacher. Group 2 students will read with partners.

Universal Access

- Bring in pictures of people swimming, jumping, tripping, skipping, and limping to use with the last five words of Oral Blending. Alternatively, plan ways to act out each action with students.

Lesson 5: Review Letter Names

Foundational Skills

Primary Focus

Students will demonstrate knowledge of letter-sound correspondences and orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c; RF.K.3a,b]

Students will recognize and name the lowercase letters of the alphabet. [RF.K.1d]

WARM-UP (10 MIN.)

Oral Blending

- Use the previously established blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain and the last five words belong to the same category. Have students tell you the category.

(3) /b/ /a/ /d/ > bad

(4) /b/ /a/ /n/ /d/ > band

(4) /l/ /a/ /n/ /d/ > land

(4) /l/ /e/ /n/ /d/ > lend

(5) /b/ /l/ /e/ /n/ /d/ > blend

(4) /s/ /w/ /i/ /m/ > swim

(4) /j/ /u/ /m/ /p/ > jump

(4) /t/ /r/ /i/ /p/ > trip

(4) /s/ /k/ /i/ /p/ > skip

(4) /l/ /i/ /m/ /p/ > limp

Foundational Literacy Skills

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students that the next set of words to be blended are all words for ways that people move. Show pictures of each movement and name the movement, asking students to repeat each word. Proceed with blending the last five words.

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record.

Sound/Spelling Review

- Following your established procedures, review the Large Letter Cards listed in the Lesson at a Glance chart. Ensure that students present the sound for each letter, not the name.

REVIEW LETTER NAMES (10 MIN.)

“The Alphabet Song”

- Refer to the lowercase alphabet strip or lowercase letters written on the board/chart paper.
- If students are ready, ask a student to lead the class in reciting or singing the letter names. Have him or her point to each letter with a pointer in alphabetical order, slowly reciting or singing the alphabet with students.
- Several students may take turns.
- Gather the Large Letter Cards for the 26 letters of the alphabet.
- Hold up a card and tell students that they should now say the name of the letter printed on it.
- Review the remaining cards.

Check for Understanding

Write the word jet on the board/chart paper. Point to 'j'; choose a student and ask him or her to provide the sound for 'j'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the student's response. Select a second student to provide the letter name for 'j'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the letter name provided. Repeat the same process with the rest of the letters in the word. Then have all students read the word aloud.

Lesson 5: “Kit’s Cats”

Reading

Primary Focus

As the teacher reads “Kit’s Cats” aloud, students will track print from top to bottom and left to right; identify periods and apostrophes; and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events.

Students will read “Kit’s Cats” with purpose and understanding. [RF.K.4]

INTRODUCE THE STORY (5 MIN.)

Note: In this story, the uppercase letters ‘K’ and ‘C’ and the spelling ‘s’ for the sound /z/ are used.

Preview Core Vocabulary

lap—v., to drink a liquid by scooping it up with the tongue (38)

Example: The cat will lap milk from a bowl.

Sayings and Phrases

- Tell students you are going to write a word from today's story on the board/chart paper before they listen to the story.
- Write the word lap on the board/chart paper, letter by letter, pausing to ask students to give the sound of each letter as you write it. Ask students to blend and read the word after you have finished writing the complete word.
- Ask students if they know the meaning of the word lap. If students do not respond, ask everyone to place their hands in their lap, explaining one meaning of the word lap is a name for the part of your body/legs when you are seated.
- Explain that some words have more than one meaning, depending on how the word is used in a sentence. The word lap can also mean to drink using one's tongue. Explain further this word is used most often when talking about animals drinking; for example, a dog might lap water from its bowl. In the story students are about to read they will hear the word lap used to describe animals drinking.

Purpose for Reading

- Tell students they will read a story about Kit's cats. Ask students to pay attention to what kinds of things Kit's cats do in the story.

TEACHER DEMONSTRATION (5 MIN.)

Read "Kit's Cats"

- Load the digital version of the story "Kit's Cats" from the Kit Big Book.
- Have students read the title of the story.
- Read the story "Kit's Cats" once without interruption, running a finger beneath the words as you read them.
- Point to Kit's in the title and remind students the little mark in Kit's is called an apostrophe. Have students say apostrophe.
- Remind students an apostrophe can be used to show ownership. Here, the apostrophe shows the cats belong to Kit.
- Read the story a second time, pausing to point out words with apostrophes, the spelling 's' pronounced /z/, and words with consonant clusters.
- If you have time, read the story again.

Wrap-Up

Discussion Questions for “Kit’s Cats”

1. Literal. What kind of pets does Kit have?
 - » Kit has cats.
2. Literal. How do Kit’s cats run?
 - » Kit’s cats run fast.
3. Literal. What do Kit’s cats lap up?
 - » Kit’s cats lap up milk.
4. Literal. Who jumps up on Kit’s bed?
 - » Kit’s cats jump up on Kit’s bed.
5. Inferential. What is the setting of this story? Look at the illustrations to answer this question.
 - » The setting of the story is inside Kit’s house/in her room/on her bed.
6. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Reading

Exchanging Information and Ideas

Entering/Emerging

Reframe questions as simple yes/no questions: “Do Kit’s cats run fast?” “Do Kit’s cats lap up juice?”

Transitioning/Expanding

After asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: “Kit has pet . . .”

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students’ responses.

Observation: Discussion Questions Observation Record

READ “KIT’S CATS” (30 MIN.)

Small Group

- Group 2: Have students take out their Readers, sit with their partners, and take turns reading “Kit’s Cats” aloud. Encourage students to ask one another for help if they have trouble sounding out a word. Students who finish early should reread the stories “Kit’s Hats” and “Kit and Stan.” Students should not read ahead.

Support

When sounding out the word has, be sure to call students' attention to the fact that the 's' stands for the /z/ sound in this word.

- Group 1: Before reading the story, "Kit's Cats," write each of the words in the box below on the board/chart paper, letter by letter, asking students to provide the sound of each letter as you write it. Ask students to blend and read the word after you have finished writing the complete word; have one or more students use each word in an oral sentence.

has	fast	milk	jump

- Ask students to turn to the table of contents and locate the title "Kit's Cats," indicating the page on which this story starts (page 33). Have students turn to this page and read the title of the story. Ask students to point to the apostrophe in Kit's name, explaining the use of the apostrophe 's' shows that the cats belong to Kit.
- Let students know that as they practice reading these stories, they may start to recognize words they have read before. Write the word Kit's on the board/chart paper, explaining, for example, they will see this word several times in this story. If they know the word, they can say it all at once, without sounding out each letter.
- Using an oral reading method of your choice, have students read the story aloud.
- Remind students to run their finger under each word as they read the story aloud. If they do not immediately recognize a word, they should sound it out letter by letter.
- Have students reread the story, if time permits.
- If time permits, students may read "Kit's Hats" and "Kit and Stan" in the same fashion.

BLENDING CONSONANT CLUSTERS PROGRESS MONITORING (OPTIONAL)

Note: You may wish to administer this assessment to students who perform poorly or inconsistently on Oral Blending Formative Assessments.

- Give each student a copy of Activity Page TR 5.1.
- Review the names of all pictures first.
- Tell students you are going to say groups of sounds and they should blend those sounds in their heads to make a word. Then they should circle the matching picture on the activity page.
- First, model with the sample word.

- Ask students to look at the first row marked with the ☆.
- Say frog in a segmented fashion, pausing slightly between each phoneme (/f/ /r/ /o/ /g/). Tell students to circle the word you said.
- Work through the remaining rows.

- | | |

Phrase Flip Book

- Cut out 10 slips of paper.
- Write the following decodable nouns on five of the slips of paper, one noun per slip: kid, man, dog, vet, frog.
- Write the following decodable verbs on five of the slips of paper, one verb per slip: runs, stops, jogs, claps, jumps.
- Stack the noun slips of paper and staple their top edge to a sheet of card stock.
- Stack the verb slips of paper and staple their top edge to the sheet of card stock to the right of the nouns.
- By flipping the slips of paper, students can make and read up to twenty-five decodable phrases, some of which are silly.

MORE HELP WITH ORAL READING

Silly Voices

- Print and cut out the picture cards on Activity Page TR 5.2 (Silly Voices) and drop them in a container. Students reach inside to pull out a picture card and reread “Kit’s Cats” from the Reader using the voice matching the character on the card.
- Demonstrate the use of the following voices and gestures to read like the characters on the cards:
 - Cowboy: Straddle your chair like you are riding a horse and use a country accent.
 - Scuba Diver: Vibrate your pointer finger on your lips as you read.
 - Sick Person: Hold your nose to sound all stuffed up.

Support

The task of applying a silly voice requires notable cognitive effort. Silly Voices should be used to motivate students to revisit text that is already very familiar from prior instruction and rereading. If students are not already reading the text with high accuracy, then rereading without silly voices to first establish ease with word recognition is appropriate.

- Opera Singer: Use big arm motions and a grand singing voice.
- Rock Star: Play your air guitar while reading.
- Robot: Move your arms like a robot, and use a monotone voice.
- Ghost: Use a spooky voice.
- Teacher: Point to the words, and use a teacher voice.
- Feel free to add others that you or students think of!
- Use any of the following partner reading options:
 - Take turns reading the entire story.
 - Have one student be the leader, reading a line at a time for the partner to echo.
 - Read chorally, keeping voices together to read the story.

Lesson 6: Tricky Word: Are

Foundational Skills

Primary Focus

Students will orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c]

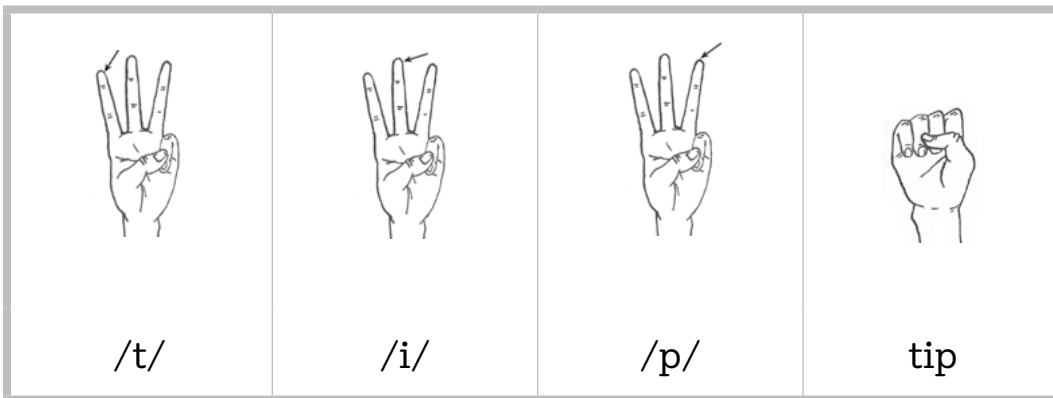

Students will recognize and name the lowercase letters of the alphabet. [RF.K.1d]

Students will read the Tricky Word are. [RF.K.3c]

WARM-UP (10 MIN.)

Oral Blending

- Use the established oral blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain. The last five words belong to the same conceptual category. Have students tell you the category.

(3) /t/ /i/ /p/ > tip

(3) /l/ /i/ /p/ > lip

(4) /c/ /l/ /i/ /p/ > clip

(4) /s/ /l/ /i/ /p/ > slip

(5) /s/ /l/ /i/ /p/ /s/ > slips

(3) /r/ /a/ /p/ > wrap

(4) /s/ /n/ /a/ /p/ > snap

(4) /c/ /l/ /a/ /p/ > clap

(4) /s/ /l/ /a/ /p/ > slap

(5) /g/ /r/ /i/ /p/ /s/ > grips

Foundational Literacy Skills

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students the next set of words to be blended are all actions performed with the hands. Put the box in the wrapping paper, wrap it up, and say, "wrap." Direct students to repeat the word back to you. Perform the actions described by the words, directing students to perform the action themselves for snap and clap and with a partner for slap and grips. Model slapping high-five for slap and shaking hands for grips. Proceed with the blending of the last five words.

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record.

Sound/Spelling Review

- Following your established procedures, review the Large Letter Cards and/or Sound Posters listed in the Lesson at a Glance.

REVIEW LETTER NAMES (15 MIN.)

Letter Name Sprints

- Place two sets of letter cards at the far end of the classroom, the gym, or the playground.
- Select two students to race.
- Call out a letter name.
- Have students race to grab a corresponding letter card and bring it back.
- The first student to return with the correct letter is the winner.
- Repeat with additional letter names.

INTRODUCE TRICKY WORD: ARE (20 MIN.)

- Remind students that Tricky Words have parts that are not pronounced as we would expect them to be pronounced. These parts do not “follow the rules,” so students must simply memorize how to pronounce and read these parts of the words.
- Review the previously taught Tricky Words using established procedures with the Tricky Word Wall or the digital version.

➤ Digital Component 6.1

- | | | |
|----------------|----------------|------------------|
| 1. l | 4. one | 7. two |
| 2. the | 5. a | 8. three |
| 3. look | 6. blue | 9. yellow |

- Write the word are on the board/chart paper and ask students how they might sound out or pronounce this word. (Based on their current code knowledge, students should say /a/ /r/ /e/, which is not a recognizable or real word.)
- Tell students that all parts of this word are tricky (i.e., not pronounced as you would expect). Underline the entire word to show that all parts are tricky, then point to and read the word are.
- Point to the word are as you say the following sentence, “The cars are fast.” Ask students to Turn and Talk, completing the sentence frame “The cars are . . .” with another word at the end.
- Write the Tricky Word are on a yellow card and add it to the Tricky Word Wall.

Note: Since students have learned that the letter ‘s’ can represent the /z/ sound, they can read the word is as a decodable word. We have chosen to include the word is in this Tricky Word lesson and the Picture Reader, for two reasons: it is a high-frequency word that merits additional practice to ensure automatic student recognition, and it is also useful to pair reading of sentences that compare and contrast the use of is and the new Tricky Word are.

- Write the word is on the board/chart paper and ask students to read this word, pointing out that they have learned that in this word the ‘s’ represents the /z/ sound, so they can read this word on their own.
- Point to is as you say the following sentence, “The car is fast.” Ask students to Turn and Talk, completing the sentence frame “The car is . . .” with another word at the end.
- Call to students’ attention that we use the word are when we are talking about more than one thing (i.e., “The cars are . . .”), but we use the word is when we are talking about only one thing (i.e., “The car is . . .”).
- Quickly present the following oral examples, pausing to allow students to orally “fill-in-the-blank” with the correct choice, is or are:
 - The boy is mad, but the boys _____ mad. (are)
 - The truck is big, but the trucks _____ big. (are)
 - The oranges are juicy, but the orange _____ juicy. (is)
 - The drinks are cold, but the drink _____ cold. (is)

Remember to point out the use of is when the sentence is about only one thing and are when the sentence is about more than one thing.

- Point to is at the top of the page, asking all students to read the word aloud.
- Next, point to the, again asking all students to read the word aloud.
- Now point to The and tell students that this word is also read as the. Point out that the first letter is an uppercase 't' and that this form of the word is used when it is at the beginning of a sentence.
- Tell students to turn to page 63.
- Now point to the first sentence on this page. Tell students that you can tell that this is a complete sentence because the first letter of the first word starts with an uppercase letter. Explicitly point out that the first letter 'T' is the uppercase form of 't' and that the first word is The because this is the first time students have encountered this word using the uppercase 'T'. Also, point out that there is a period after the last word, another indication that it is a complete sentence.
- Call on individual students to read the sentences aloud through page 67.
- Distribute Activity Page 6.1 and complete each item as a class. Ask one student to read each sentence aloud and direct all students to then say and write either the word is or are, as appropriate, in the blank space to complete the sentence.

Lesson 6: Spelling Language

Primary Focus: Students will spell one-syllable, short-vowel words with consonants and consonant clusters (CVC, CCVC). [RF.K.3a,b; L.K.2d]

CHAINING DICTATION (15 MIN.)

➤ Digital Component 6.2

- Distribute and display Activity Page 6.2.
- Tell students you are going to say a number of words. Each new word will be very similar to the previous word, but one sound will be different.
- Say in and ask students how many sounds they hear. (two)
- Say the word again, holding up one finger for each sound.

- Direct students' attention to the first two lines on Activity Page 6.2. Have students write the letter representing the first sound in in on the first line and the letter representing the second sound in in on the second line, following your example.
- Once students have finished writing the word, have them read it back to you.
- Dictation, or spelling words, is much more difficult than reading. If students need help remembering the letter forms during dictation, point out the lowercase alphabet strip or letters you have written on the board/chart paper, as well as the Sound Posters.
- As you move from one word to the next, use the chaining phrase, "If that is in, show me bin."

in > bin > tin > twin > twig > wig > big > bag > brag > rag

Activity Page 6.2: Chaining Dictation (CVC and CCVC Words)

Collect and review Activity Page 6.2 to monitor student progress. If needed, use the additional activity described in "More Help Spelling Consonant Clusters" at the end of the lesson for students who need more practice.

ADVANCE PREPARATION

Pocket Chart Setup

Foundational Skills

- Display a lowercase alphabet strip (or write the lowercase letters in alphabetical order on the board/chart paper).
- Prepare the pocket chart as shown.
- Write each of the words listed in the Lesson at a Glance on an individual index card to use as Wiggle Cards.

Language

Note: Be sure to have the box of Small Letter Cards available so you can swap out cards with students during the lesson.

Reading

- Plan for students who read “Kit’s Cats” with partners in the previous lesson (Group 2) to work with the teacher today. Group 1 students will partner read today.

Universal Access

- Bring in pictures of people running, kicking, jumping, stomping, and standing to use with the last five words of Oral Blending. Alternatively, plan ways to act out each action.

Lesson 7: Consonant Clusters

Foundational Skills

Primary Focus

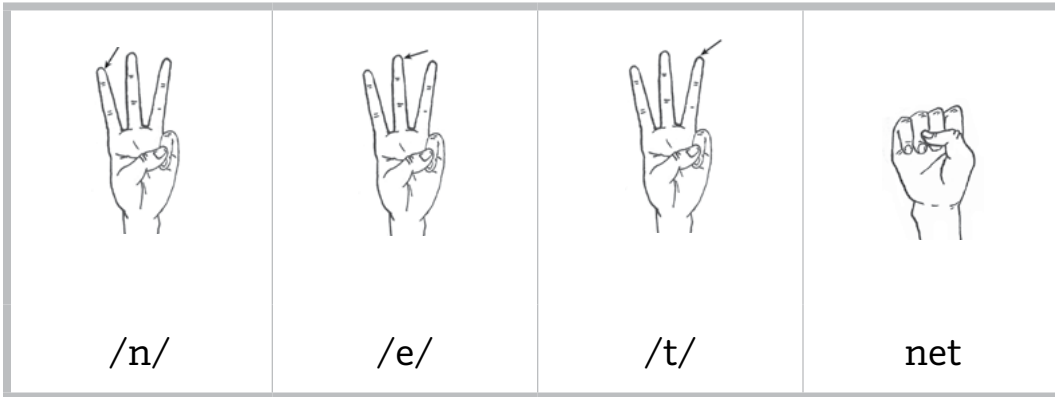

Students will orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c]

WARM-UP (10 MIN.)

Oral Blending

- Use the previously established blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain and the last five words belong to the same category. Have students tell you the category.

(3) /n/ /e/ /t/ > net

(3) /w/ /e/ /t/ > wet

(4) /w/ /e/ /n/ /t/ > went

(4) /w/ /e/ /p/ /t/ > wept

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students that the next set of words to be blended are all names of ways to move your legs. Show the picture of each leg motion and name the motion. Proceed with blending the last five words.

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record.

Alphabet Review

- Refer to the lowercase alphabet on display. Remind students that these are all the letters of the English alphabet and that when they are written in this order, the letters are in “alphabetical order.”
- Sing “The Alphabet Song” slowly, using established procedures.
- If time permits, point to each letter in order, calling on students to name each letter.

Lesson 7: Spelling

Language

Primary Focus: Students will read and spell one-syllable, short-vowel words with consonants and consonant clusters (CVC, CCVC, CVCC).

[RF.K.3a,b; RF.K.3d; L.K.2d]

STUDENT CHAINING (20 MIN.)

- Ask students to take out their Chaining Folders and arrange the Small Letter Cards on the folder, with the letters for vowel sounds along the top and the letters for consonant sounds along the bottom.
- Collect ‘x’ and ‘k’ Small Letter Cards from all students.
- Give each student two Small Letter Cards showing a picture of the /s/ or /z/ sound (both spelled ‘s’) and two Small Letter Cards showing a picture of the /p/ sound.
- Make sure students have Small Letter Cards for the following vowel spellings along the top of the folder: ‘i’, ‘e’, ‘a’, ‘u’, ‘o’.

Pocket Chart Setup

Chaining Folder

- Make sure students have Small Letter Cards for the following consonant spellings along the bottom of the folder: 'n' (2), 't' (2), 'd' (2), 's' (2), 'p' (2), 'b' (2), 'j', 'y'.
- Review the letter-sound correspondences by pointing to a letter on the pocket chart and having students say the sound.
- Ask students to spell net in the middle of their Chaining Folders, starting on the left side at the green dot. While students are arranging cards, inspect as many Chaining Folders as you can. Ask a student to come to the pocket chart and spell the word net.
- If necessary, encourage students to correct what they have spelled on their Chaining Folders.
- When students have spelled net, say, "If that is net, show me bet."
- After changing the word, say, "Which letter did we change to make net into bet?"
- Repeat for the remaining words in the chain.
- Once students have spelled the last word in the chain, have students return the Small Letter Cards to their slots.
- Begin the next chain by saying the first word in the chain.

1. net > bet > yet > jet > jets > jots > jobs > bobs > bibs > bins
2. pat > spat > spot > pot > pop > top > stop > sop > sap > snap

Check for Understanding

Monitor students' performance as they move from one word to the next, especially with regard to the consonant clusters.

Lesson 7: “Kit’s Cats”

Reading

Primary Focus: Students will track print from top to bottom and left to right, and will read “Kit’s Cats” with purpose and understanding.

[RF.K.1a; RF.K.4; RL.K.1; RL.K.3; RL.K.7]

WIGGLE CARDS (10 MIN.)

- Tell students you are going to show them some cards describing actions; they will read each card and perform the action listed.
- Show students a card, have them read it, and have them perform the action.
- If you have time, repeat some or all of the cards.

REREAD “KIT’S CATS” (20 MIN.)

Purpose for Reading

- Tell students they will read a story about Kit’s cats. Ask students to pay attention to what kinds of things Kit’s cats do in the story.

Note: Students from Group 2 who partner read “Kit’s Cats” in Lesson 5 should read aloud with the teacher today.

Group 1: Have students take out their Readers, sit with their partners, and take turns rereading “Kit’s Cats” aloud. Students who finish early should reread the stories “Kit’s Hats” and “Kit and Stan.” They should not read ahead. Encourage students to ask one another for help if they have difficulty sounding out a word.

Group 2: Ask students to turn to the table of contents and locate the title “Kit’s Cats,” indicating the page on which this story starts (page 33). Have students turn to this page and read the title of the story. Ask students to point to the apostrophe in Kit’s name, explaining the use of the apostrophe ‘s’ shows the cats belong to Kit.

- Tell students that as they practice reading these stories, they may start to recognize words they have read before. For example, write the word Kit’s on the board/chart paper, explaining that they will see this word several times in the story. If they know the word, they can say it without sounding out each letter.

Reader

- Using an oral reading method of your choice, have students read the story aloud.
- Remind students to run their finger under each word as they read the story aloud. If they do not immediately recognize a word, they should sound it out letter by letter.
- Have students reread the story, if time permits.
- If time permits, students may read “Kit’s Hats” and “Kit and Stan” in the same fashion.

Observation: “Kit’s Cats” Anecdotal Reading Record

As you listen to each student read “Kit’s Cats,” make notes regarding any mispronunciations, decoding approach, etc., in the Anecdotal Reading Record.

Wrap-Up

Note: You may choose to reconvene both groups to discuss the story, or you may choose to continue working with Group 2 only.

Discussion Questions for “Kit’s Cats”

1. Literal. What is this story about?
 - » This story is about Kit’s cats.
2. Literal. Who runs fast in the story?
 - » Kit’s cats run fast.
3. Literal. What do Kit’s cats do on Kit’s bed?
 - » Kit’s cats jump up on Kit’s bed.
4. Literal. What does Kit’s brown cat play with on her bed? Look at the illustrations.
 - » Kit’s brown cat plays with a hat.
5. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Reading

Exchanging Information and Ideas

Entering/Emerging

Reframe questions as simple yes/no questions: “Do Kit’s cats run fast?” “Is this story about Kit’s fish?”

Transitioning/Expanding

After asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: “Kit’s cats jump up on Kit’s . . .” “Kit’s cats run . . .”

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students’ responses.

Observation: Discussion Questions Observation Record

Call on a different student to answer each question. Note students' performance in the Discussion Questions Observation Record.

READING CONSONANT CLUSTERS PROGRESS MONITORING (OPTIONAL)

Note: You may want to administer this assessment one-on-one to students who performed poorly on Activity Page 6.2 (spelling clusters).

- Make one copy of the word page on Activity Page TR 7.1. Also make one copy of Activity Page TR 7.2 (Record Sheet) for each student you will assess.
- Tell the student you will ask him or her to read each of the words in the boxes.

- First, model reading the sample word spin.
- Ask the student to continue reading the rest of the words.
- Use the Record Sheet to record each word as the student reads.
- Students who have difficulty reading the words may need more practice blending clusters as well as reading clusters. Student who are able to read words with clusters on this assessment, but performed poorly on Activity Page 6.2 are on the right track. It is not unusual for spelling competency to lag behind reading competency. Make sure that you encourage these students to refer to the Sound Posters and lowercase alphabet strip during all spelling activities.

Bingo

- Copy and cut out word cards (Activity Page TR 7.4).

Note: Copy and cut the boards and word cards from card stock to allow for reuse.

- Make enough copies of Activity Page TR 7.3 (Bingo Boards) for each student to have one board.
- Any collection of small objects can be used for students to cover spaces on their game boards (e.g., cubes, beans, tiles, etc.).
- As the teacher selects and reads a word card, students will search for the word on their boards.
- Ask students to put their finger on the word if they find it, and to then read it, allowing you to confirm that they are correct before covering the space.
- When students are incorrect, use the opportunity to address the confusion.
- When students are correct, ask, “How did you know that was _____?” (This verbalization of knowledge used is powerful for reinforcing learning.)
- The game may be played until one or all students have three spaces covered in a row, or until one or all students have “blackout” (covering the entire board).

- Make sure students have the following consonant spellings along the bottom of the folders: 'm' (2), 'n' (2), 'g', 'f' (2), 's' (2), 'p' (2), 'l', 'h'.
- Review the letter-sound correspondences by pointing to a letter on the pocket chart and having students say the sound.
- Assign student pairs.
- Tell students you are going to say some words. For each word you say, you want one person to spell the word using their Chaining Folder and the other person to copy the word.
- Ask students to spell hen in the middle of their Chaining Folders. While the students are arranging cards, inspect as many Chaining Folders as you can.
- Ask a student to come up to the pocket chart and spell hen.
- Encourage students to make any necessary corrections.
- Once students have chained and copied the word, say, "If that is hen, show me hem."
- After students have chained and copied some of the words, have students switch roles.
- From time to time, choose a student to touch and say the individual sounds in a chained word and then read the word with the sounds blended together.

“KIT’S CATS”

Two Voices

- “Kit’s Cats” has been recreated on Activity Page TR 7.5 to be read by two voices. One student reads down column 1 while the other student reads down column 2, completing the story together. The lines that should be read chorally (voices together) are in bold. Students may be encouraged to practice rereading for two voices to prepare to perform the story! Story copies for two voices may also be sent home to be read with family and friends.

Students will demonstrate knowledge of letter-sound correspondences and orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c; RF.K.3a,b]

Students will recognize and name the lowercase letters of the alphabet. [RF.K.1d]

WARM-UP

Oral Blending

- Use the established oral blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain. The last five words belong to the same conceptual category. Have students tell you the category.

/h/	/u/	/m/	hum

Note: There is no /sh/ sound in Spanish. You pronounce the /sh/ in shirt by letting air out between your teeth. Notice how you don't press your tongue against the top of your mouth and push like you do to make the /ch/ sound. You can stretch out the /sh/ sound. Demonstrate how to make the /sh/ sound.

(3) /h/ /u/ /m/ > hum

(4) /h/ /u/ /m/ /p/ > hump

(4) /j/ /u/ /m/ /p/ > jump

(4) /l/ /u/ /m/ /p/ > lump

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record. Consider using the activity from "More Help Blending Consonant Clusters" at the end of this lesson for students who are having difficulty.

Sound/Spelling Review

- Review the Large Letter Cards listed in the Lesson at a Glance.
- Tell students you will be asking them to give both the sound and letter name when you show them a card. Ask for the sound first, then the name.

Check for Understanding

Write the word step on the board/chart paper. Point to 's' and choose a student to provide the sound for 's'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the student's response. Select a second student to provide the letter name for 's'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the letter name provided. Repeat the same process with the rest of the letters in the word.

DICTATION WITH WORDS

➤ Digital Component 8.1

- Distribute and display Activity Page 8.1.
- Tell students you are going to say a number of words for them to write on the activity page.
- Say the word let. Then segment the word, raising one finger for each sound: “/l/ (raise thumb) . . . /e/ (raise pointer finger) . . . /t/ (raise middle finger).”
- Ask students how many sounds are in the word let.
- Direct students’ attention to the first three lines on Activity Page 8.1. Have students write an ‘l’ on the first line, following your example.
- Repeat for the remaining two sounds and spellings in let.
- Model reading the word, letter sound by letter sound, to check for spelling accuracy.
- Demonstrate this process with at least one or two additional words before having students write the words independently.
- Remind students to refer to the Sound Posters and/or alphabet strip as a reference, if needed.

Lesson 8: “Kit’s Mom”

Reading

Primary Focus

As the teacher reads “Kit’s Mom” aloud, students will track print from top to bottom, left to right; identify periods at the end of sentences; and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events.

[RF.K.1a–c; L.K.2b; RL.K.1; RL.K.3; RL.K.7]

Students will read “Kit’s Mom” with purpose and understanding. [RF.K.4]

Big Book

Foundational Literacy Skills

Write the names of different students with an apostrophe ‘s’ (’s) on the board/chart paper. Read the names, pointing out the ‘s’ while pointing to something that belongs to each student (e.g., Jose’s shirt, Maria’s book, etc.).

INTRODUCE THE STORY (5 MIN.)

Note: In this story, the uppercase letters ‘K’ and ‘M’ are used.

Purpose for Reading

- Tell students they will read a story about Kit’s mom. Ask students to pay special attention to the story so they can tell you about what Kit’s mom does when she gets up.

TEACHER DEMONSTRATION (5 MIN.)

Read “Kit’s Mom”

- Load or display the story “Kit’s Mom” from the Kit Big Book.
- Have students read the title of the story.
- Read the story “Kit’s Mom” once without interruption, running a finger beneath the words as you read them.
- Point to Kit’s in the title and remind students that the little mark in Kit’s is called an apostrophe. Have students say apostrophe.

- Remind students that an apostrophe can be used to show ownership. Here, the apostrophe shows the mom belongs to Kit.
- Read the story a second time, pausing to point out words with apostrophes and words with consonant clusters.
- If you have time, read the story again, having students read aloud.

Wrap-Up Discussion

- Discuss the following questions as a class. Students should respond in complete sentences. Ask a student to come to the Big Book and read the sentence/point to the illustration that answers the question.

Discussion Questions for “Kit’s Mom”

1. Literal. What time does Kit’s mom get up?
 - » Kit’s mom gets up at six.
2. Literal. Who does Kit’s mom get up first?
 - » Kit’s mom gets Kit’s dad up first.
3. Literal. Who gets Kit’s pets fed?
 - » Kit’s mom gets Kit’s pets fed.
4. Literal. What does Kit’s mom wear on her feet when she gets up? Look at the illustrations.
 - » Kit’s mom wears slippers on her feet.
5. Inferential. What is the setting of this story? Look at the illustrations.
 - » The setting is inside Kit’s house.
6. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Reading

Exchanging Information and Ideas

Entering/Emerging

Reframe questions as simple yes/no questions: “Does Kit’s mom get up at six?” “Does Kit’s dad get Kit’s pets fed?”

Transitioning/Expanding

After asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: “Kit’s mom wears slippers on her . . .”

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students’ responses.

Observation: Discussion Questions Observation Record

READ “KIT’S MOM” (20 MIN.)

Small Group

Group 2: Have students take out their Readers, sit with their partners, and take turns reading “Kit’s Mom” aloud to one another. Students who finish early should reread the stories “Kit’s Cats” and “Kit’s Hats.” They should not read ahead. Encourage students to ask their partner for help if they have difficulty with a word.

Group 1: Before reading the story, “Kit’s Mom,” write each of the words in the box below on the board/chart paper, letter by letter, asking students to provide the sound of each letter as you write it. Ask students to blend and read the word after you have finished writing the complete word; have one or more students use the word in an oral sentence.

|---------|--------|
| 1. Mom | 4. six |
| 2. gets | 5. dad |
| 3. pets | |

- Ask students to turn to the table of contents and locate the title “Kit’s Mom,” indicating the page on which this story starts (page 43). Have students turn to this page and read the title of the story. Ask students to point to the apostrophe in Kit’s, explaining that the use of the apostrophe ‘s’ shows the mom in this story belongs to Kit.
- Let students know that as they practice reading these stories, they may start to recognize words they have read before. Write the word Kit’s on the board/chart paper, explaining, for example, they will see this word several times in this story. If they know the word, they can say it all at once, without sounding out each letter.
- Using an oral reading method of your choice, have students read the story aloud.
- Remind students to run their finger under each word as they read the story aloud. If they do not immediately recognize a word, they should sound it out letter by letter.
- Have students reread the story, if time permits.
- If time permits, have students reread “Kit’s Cats” and “Kit’s Hats” in the same fashion.

Silly Voices

- Print and cut out the picture cards on Activity Page TR 5.2 (Silly Voices) and drop them in a container. Students reach inside to pull out a picture card and reread “Kit’s Mom” from the Reader using the voice matching the character on the card.

Support

The task of applying a silly voice requires notable cognitive effort. Silly Voices should be used to motivate students to revisit text that is already very familiar from prior instruction and rereading. If students are not already reading the text with high accuracy, then rereading without silly voices to first establish ease with word recognition is appropriate.

Students will recognize and produce rhyming words. [RF.K.2a]

WARM-UP (10 MIN.)

Oral Blending

- Use the established oral blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain. The last five words belong to the same conceptual category. Have students tell you the category.

/r/	/a/	/n/	ran

(3) /r/ /a/ /n/ > ran

(4) /r/ /a/ /n/ /ch/ > ranch

(5) /b/ /r/ /a/ /n/ /ch/ > branch

(5) /b/ /r/ /a/ /n/ /d/ > brand

(4) /d/ /e/ /s/ /k/ > desk

(4) /l/ /a/ /m/ /p/ > lamp

(5) /k/ /ar/ /p/ /e/ /t/ > carpet

Foundational Skills

Foundational Literacy Skills

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students that the next set of words to be blended are all names of things found in a house. Show pictures of each household item and name the item, asking students to repeat the word after you. Proceed with blending the last five words.

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record.

Sound/Spelling Review

- Review the Large Letter Cards listed in the Lesson at a Glance.
- Point to a letter and ask students to provide the sound and letter name.

REVIEW RHYMING WORDS (10 MIN.)

Do They Rhyme?

- Remind students that two words rhyme when they end with the same sound.
- Give students oral examples of rhyming words (e.g., hat—cat, dog—hog, men—pen, bed—red).
- Say a pair of words and ask if they rhyme; for contrast, say a pair of words that do not rhyme and ask if they rhyme.
- Complete the remaining word pairs in the same fashion.

- | | |

Language

Primary Focus: Students will spell one-syllable, short-vowel words with consonants and consonant clusters (CVC, CCVC, CVCC). [RF.K.3a,b; L.K.2d]

CHAIN AND COPY (20 MIN.)

- Ask students to take out their Chaining Folders, a pencil, and a piece of paper.
- Collect the 'j' and 'y' Small Letter Cards from all students.
- Give each student one 'l' Small Letter Card and two 'm' Small Letter Cards.
- Make sure students have Small Letter Cards for the following vowel spellings along the top of the folder: 'i', 'e', 'a', 'u', 'o'.
- Make sure students have Small Letter Cards for the following consonant spellings along the bottom of the folder: 'm' (2), 'n' (2), 't' (2), 'd' (2), 's' (2), 'p' (2), 'b' (2), 'l'.
- Review the letter-sound correspondences by pointing to a letter on the pocket chart and having students say the sound.
- Assign student pairs.
- Tell students you are going to say some words. For each word you say, ask one person to spell the word using their Chaining Folder and the other person to copy the word.
- Ask students to spell dip in the middle of their Chaining Folders. While the students are arranging Small Letter Cards, inspect as many Chaining Folders and papers as you can.
- Ask a student to come up to the pocket chart and spell dip.
- Encourage students to make any necessary corrections.
- Once students have chained and copied the word, say, "If that is dip, show me lip."
- After students have chained and copied some of the words, have students switch roles.

Pocket Chart Setup

Chaining Folder

- From time to time, choose a student to touch and say the individual sounds in a chained word and then read the word with the sounds blended together.

1. dip > lip > lop > plop > plot > slot > slat > slant > plant > pant
2. bump > pump > plump > slump > lump > lamp > lap > slap > slip > slit

Check for Understanding

Monitor students' performance as they move from one word to the next, especially with regard to the consonant clusters.

Lesson 9: "Kit's Mom"

Reading

Primary Focus: Students will read "Kit's Mom" with purpose and understanding. [RF.K.4]

REREAD "KIT'S MOM" (20 MIN.)

Small Group

Note: Students in Group 2 should read aloud with the teacher today.

Group 1: Have students take out their Readers, sit with their partners, and take turns rereading "Kit's Mom" aloud. Students who finish early should reread the stories "Kit's Cats" and "Kit's Hats." They should not read ahead. Encourage students to ask their partner for help sounding out any difficult words.

Group 2: Ask students to turn to the table of contents and locate the title "Kit's Mom," indicating the page on which this story starts (page 43). Have students turn to this page and read the title of the story. Ask students to point to the apostrophe in Kit's, explaining the use of the apostrophe before the 's' shows the mom in this story belongs to Kit.

Note: Copy and cut the game cards from card stock to allow for reuse.

- Follow Race to the Top directions in Lesson 3 of this Teacher Guide to play either “Read It” or “Spell It.”

MORE HELP WITH RHYMING WORDS

Give Me a Word

- Gather a collection of blocks (e.g., unit blocks or locking cubes).
- Tell students you will provide a word and want them to say a rhyming word. For example: “Give me a word that rhymes with pig.”
- As students provide rhyming words, give them a block. With each block, students get a turn to place it, building a collective structure as the game continues.

| 3. fast | 6. clam | 9. pant | 12. lamp |

Support

If students struggle to think of a word, you may provide an alphabet strip and prompt them to try different beginning sounds to find a rhyme.

Rhyme and Roll

- Get a ball and seat students in a circle on the floor.
- Tell students that you will say a word and then will roll the ball to someone. That student should say a rhyming word and then roll the ball to the next student.
- If the student with the ball cannot think of a rhyming word, ask around the group if anyone can. If someone else can, roll the ball to that student and continue. If no one can think of a rhyming word, the student with the ball gets to provide a new word to rhyme.

MORE HELP WITH ORAL READING

Two Voices

- “Kit’s Mom” has been reprinted on Activity Page TR 9.2 to be read by two voices. One student reads down column 1 while the other student reads down column 2, completing the story together. The lines that should be read chorally (voices together) are in bold. Students may be encouraged to practice rereading for two voices to prepare to perform the story. Story copies for two voices may also be sent home to be read with family and friends.

Purpose for Reading

- Tell students they will read a story about Kit’s pants. Ask students to pay special attention to the story so they can tell you about what happens to Kit’s pants.

TEACHER DEMONSTRATION (10 MIN.)

Read “Kit’s Pants”

Note: In this story, the uppercase letters ‘K’ and ‘P’ and the contraction can’t are used.

- Load or display the story “Kit’s Pants” from the Kit Big Book.
- Have students read the title of the story.
- Read the story “Kit’s Pants” once without interruption, running a finger beneath the words as you read them.
- Point to Kit’s in the title and remind students the little mark in Kit’s is an apostrophe which is used to show ownership. (The pants belong to Kit.)
- Point to can’t in the story and tell students the apostrophe in can’t does not show ownership but signals a type of word called a contraction. The words can and not have been contracted, or shortened, into the single word can’t.
- Point to and reread the sentence, “Kit’s mom can’t stand lost pants.” Ask students what two words the contraction can’t stands for.
- Read the story a second time, pausing to point out words with apostrophes and words with consonant clusters.

WARM-UP (10 MIN.)Oral Blending

- Use the established oral blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain. The last five words belong to the same conceptual category. Have students tell you the category.

Foundational Skills*Foundational Literacy Skills

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students the next set of words to be blended are all names of sea animals. Show the picture of each sea animal and name the animal.

Direct students to repeat the name of each animal. Proceed with the blending of the last five words.

Sound/Spelling Review

- Review the Large Letter Cards listed in the Lesson at a Glance.
- Point to a letter and ask students to provide the sound and letter name.

Do They Rhyme?

- Remind students that two words rhyme when they end with the same sounds.
- Give students oral examples of rhyming words (e.g., cake—take, pen—ten, big—pig, hug—bug, etc.).
- Say a pair of words and ask if they rhyme. For contrast, say a pair of words that do not rhyme and ask if they rhyme.
- Complete the remaining word pairs in the same fashion.

Challenge

If a pair of words rhymes, ask students to provide additional rhyming words.

INTRODUCE TRICKY WORD: LITTLE (20 MIN.)

Note: The word big is included in this Tricky Word lesson and the Picture Reader even though students can read big as a decodable word. Contrast big with the new Tricky Word little, presenting big and little as opposites.

- Remind students that Tricky Words have parts that are not pronounced as we would expect them to be pronounced. These parts do not “follow the rules,” so students must simply memorize how to pronounce and read these parts of the words.
- Review the previously taught Tricky Words on the Tricky Word Wall or use the digital version using established procedures.

Foundational Skills

Foundational Literacy Skills

Something that is little in size, like an ant, is teensy-tiny (gesture pinching thumb and forefinger together); something that is big in size, like an elephant, is huge (gesture with arms far apart). So the words big and little are opposites.

- Write the word little on the board/chart paper and ask students how they might sound out or pronounce this word. (Based on their current code knowledge, students may say “/l/ /i/ /t/ /t/ /l/ /e/,” which is not a recognizable or real word.)
- Tell students that they can sound out some parts of this word. The beginning sounds as they would expect, but the ending is tricky. Read the word for students and then guide them in noticing that they can sound out the beginning (i.e., /l/ /i/ /t/), but that the ending is just /l/.
- Circle the two ‘l’s, ‘i’, and the first ‘t’ to indicate that these parts of the word are sounded as you would expect. Underline the second ‘t’ and ‘e’ to indicate these parts are tricky.

little

- Point to the word little as you say the following sentence, “The ant is little.” Ask students to Turn and Talk, using the word little to tell their partner about something else that is little.
- Now write little on the yellow index card and place it on the Tricky Word Wall.
- Now write the word big on the board/chart paper and ask students to read this word, pointing out that they can sound out and read this word on their own.
- Point to big as you say the following sentence, “The elephant is big.” Ask students to Turn and Talk, using the word big to tell their partner about something else that is big.
- Tell students that the words big and little are called opposites, meaning that they are completely different.

- Display page 69 of the Picture Reader and ask students to turn to the same page in their copies of the Picture Reader.
- Point to big at the top of the page, asking all students to read the word aloud.
- Now point to the first sentence on the next page. Ask students how they can tell that this is a complete sentence. (It starts with an uppercase letter and ends with a period.)
- Call on individual students to read the sentences on pages 70–77 aloud.
- As students read sentences that use the words is and are, ask them to notice whether only one or more than one thing is being talked about in each sentence to reinforce their understanding that the word is is used when talking about one thing and are is used when talking about more than one thing.

➤ Digital Component 11.2

- Distribute and display Activity Page 11.1 and complete each item as a class. Ask one student to read each sentence aloud and direct all students to then say and write either the word big or little, as appropriate, in the blank space to complete the sentence.

Lesson 11: Spelling

Language

Primary Focus: Students will read and spell one-syllable, short-vowel words with consonants and consonant clusters (CVC, CCVC, CVCC). [RF.K.3a,b; L.K.2d]

CHAIN AND COPY

- Ask each student to take out his or her Chaining Folder, a pencil, and a piece of paper.
- Collect the 'l' and 'n' cards.
- Give each student one Small Letter Card each for the /r/ sound ('r') and the /k/ sound ('k').
- Make sure students have Small Letter Cards for the following vowel spellings along the top of the folder: 'i', 'e', 'a', 'u', 'o'.
- Make sure students have Small Letter Cards for the following consonant spellings along the bottom of the folder: 'm' (2), 't' (2), 'd' (2), 'k', 's' (2), 'p' (2), 'b' (2), 'r'.
- Review letter-sound correspondences by pointing to a letter on the pocket chart and having students say the sound.
- Assign student pairs.
- Tell students you are going to say some words. For each word you say, you want one person to spell the word using their Chaining Folder and the other person to copy the word.
- Ask students to spell rip in the middle of their Chaining Folders while partners copy the word on paper. While students are arranging cards, look over as many Chaining Folders and papers as you can.
- Ask a student to come up to the pocket chart and spell rip.

Pocket Chart Setup

Chaining Folder

- If necessary, encourage students to correct what they have spelled on their Chaining Folders and papers.
- Once students have chained and copied the word, say, “If that is rip, show me trip.”
- After students have chained and copied some of the words, have students switch roles.
- From time to time, choose an individual student to touch and say the individual sounds in a chained word and then read the word with the sounds blended together.

1. rip > trip > trap > tap > tab > stab > stub > tub > tubs > rubs
2. risk > disk > desk > dusk > dust > bust > best > rest > rust > must

Check for Understanding

Monitor students' performance as they move from one word to the next, especially with regard to the consonant clusters.

BLENDING CONSONANT CLUSTERS PROGRESS MONITORING (OPTIONAL)

Note: You may wish to administer this assessment to students whose performance was questionable on early Oral Blending Formative Assessments.

- Give each student a copy of Activity Page TR 11.1.
- Review the names of all pictures first.
- Tell students you are going to say groups of sounds and they should blend those sounds in their heads to make a word. Then they should circle the matching picture on the activity page.
- First, model with the sample word.
- Ask students to look at the first row marked with the ☆.
- Say frog in a segmented fashion, pausing slightly between each phoneme (/f/ /r/ /o/ /g/). Tell students to circle the picture of the frog.
- Work through the remaining rows.

MORE HELP WITH RHYMING WORDS

Stand Up for Rhymes

- Recite familiar poems, songs, nursery rhymes, or rhyming stories with students. Several poems, songs, and nursery rhymes are provided on Activity Page TR 11.2.
- Play one of the following games:
 - Recognize Rhymes: As you recite the text selection, ask students to stand up when they hear a rhyme and repeat the rhyming pair. For example, "We'll catch a fox, and put him in a box . . ." Students stand if they recognize the rhyme and when prompted say "fox/box."
 - Produce Rhymes: As you recite the text selection, emphasize the first word in a rhyming pair, and pause before the second word, allowing students to stand up if they know the rhyme completing the line. For example, "We'll catch a fox, and put him in a (pause) . . ." Students stand if they know the rhyme to complete the line and when prompted say "box."

Challenge

Ask students to provide additional rhyming words beyond those used in the text. For example, with fox/box students may say ox, docks, knocks, locks, pox, rocks, or socks.

INTRODUCE THE STORY (5 MIN.)

Note: In this story, the uppercase letters ‘M’ and ‘K’, the spelling ‘s’ for the sound /z/, and the contraction can’t are used.

Preview Core Vocabulary

- Before reading today’s story, preview the word mumps, writing it on the board/chart paper, sounding it out with students, and explaining what it means.

mumps—n., an illness with a fever and swelling in the cheeks and neck (57)
Example: When I had the mumps, I felt really sick.

Sayings and Phrases

Purpose for Reading

- Tell students they are going to read a story about Kit being sick. Ask students to pay special attention to the story so they can tell you what illness Kit has.

TEACHER DEMONSTRATION (10 MIN.)

Read “Mumps”

- Load the story “Mumps” from the Kit Big Book.
- Have students read the title of the story.
- Read the story “Mumps” once without interruption, running a finger beneath the words as you read them.
- Point to can’t in the story and remind students the apostrophe in can’t signals a contraction. The words can and not have been contracted, or shortened, into the single word can’t.
- Read the story a second time, pausing to point out periods at the end of sentences, the apostrophe in the contraction can’t, the spelling ‘s’ pronounced /z/, and words with consonant clusters.
- If you have time, read the story again, having students read aloud.

Wrap-Up

- Discuss the following questions as a class. Students should respond in complete sentences. Ask a student to come to the Big Book and read the sentence/point to the illustration that answers the question.

Discussion Questions for “Mumps”

1. Literal. Why is Kit in bed?
 - » Kit can't get up.
2. Literal. What illness does Kit have?
 - » Kit has mumps.
3. Literal. What things can't Kit do because she has mumps?
 - » Kit can't run and jump. Kit can't skip and hop.
4. Literal. How does this make Kit feel?
 - » Kit is sad.
5. Literal. Who is the main character in this story?
 - » The main character in this story is Kit.
6. Inferential. What is the setting of the story? Look at the illustrations.
 - » The setting of the story is Kit's house/bed.
7. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Reading

Exchanging Information and Ideas

Entering/Emerging

Reframe questions as simple yes/no questions: “Is Kit sick?” “Does Kit have mumps?”

Transitioning/Expanding

After asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: “When she has the mumps, Kit can't . . .”

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students' responses.

Observation: Discussion Questions Observation Record

READ “MUMPS” (15 MIN.)

Small Group

Group 2: Have students take out their Readers, sit with their partners, and take turns reading “Mumps” aloud to one another. Students who finish early should reread the stories “Kit’s Pants” and “Kit’s Mom.” They should not read ahead.

Group 1: Before reading the story, “Mumps,” write each of the words in the box on the board/chart paper, letter by letter, asking students to provide the sound of each letter as you write it. Ask students to blend and read the word after you have finished writing the complete word; have one or more students use the word in an oral sentence.

Note: When students sound out and read the words has and is, be sure to point out that the ‘s’ at the end of these words stands for the /z/ sound. Also point out the use of the apostrophe in can’t, explaining the word can’t means can not.

- | | | |
|--------|----------|---------|
| 1. has | 3. mumps | 5. jump |
| 2. is | 4. can't | 6. skip |

- Ask students to turn to the table of contents and locate the title “Mumps,” indicating the page on which this story starts (page 57). Have students turn to this page and read the title of the story.
- Let students know that as they practice reading these stories, they may start to recognize words they have read before. Write the word Kit on the board/chart paper, explaining that, for example, they will see this word several times in this story. If they know the word, they can say it all at once, without sounding out each letter.
- Using an oral reading method of your choice, have students read the story aloud.
- Students should run their finger under each word as they read the story aloud. If they do not immediately recognize a word, they should sound it out letter by letter.
- Have students reread the story, if time permits.
- If time permits, continue having students read “Kit’s Pants” and “Kit’s Mom” in the same fashion.

- Place the slips of paper in your pocket chart.
- Have students choose a sentence to copy and illustrate.

Unscramble the Words

- Write a number of the decodable words containing consonant clusters on large cards.
- Hand two or three cards needed to make a phrase to two or three students in random order.
- Have each student say his or her word.
- Have students arrange the cards to make a phrase (e.g., frogs swim fast).
- Continue with other words.

- | | | | |
|----------|----------|----------|-----------|
| 1. frogs | 4. belts | 7. snug | 10. hands |
| 2. flat | 5. slap | 8. jump | 11. fast |
| 3. swim | 6. left | 9. lands | 12. went |

Large Card Chaining

- Distribute the following Large Letter Cards, reviewing each card's sound: 'i', 'e', 'a', 'u', 'o', 'm', 'n', 't', 'd', 'c', 'g', 'f', 's', 'p', 'l', 'r', 'w'.

| 1. pan > span > stan > stag > snag > snug > snub > sub > sob > slob |
| 2. run > runt > hunt > hint > hints > hits > sits > wits > pits |

Dictation with Words

- Give each student a copy of Activity Page TR 12.3.
- Tell students you are going to say a number of words for them to write on Activity Page TR 12.3.

- Say the word hut.
- Then segment the word, raising one finger for each sound:
“/h/ (raise thumb) . . . /u/ (raise pointer finger) . . . /t/ (raise middle finger).”
- Ask students how many sounds are in the word hut.
- Direct students' attention to the first three lines on Activity Page TR 12.3. Have students write an 'h' on the first line, pausing to see that each student has completed it correctly.
- Repeat for the remaining two sounds and spellings in hut.
- Model reading the word sound by sound to check for spelling accuracy.
- Demonstrate this process with at least one or two additional words before having students write the words independently.
- Remind students to refer to the Sound Posters as a reference.

ADVANCE PREPARATION

Foundational Skills

- Display a lowercase alphabet strip or write the lowercase letters on the board/chart paper.

Language

- Assign student pairs for Chain and Copy.
- Prepare pocket chart as shown.

Reading

- Plan for students who read “Mumps” as partners in the previous lesson (Group 2) to work with the teacher today. Group 1 students will partner read today.

Universal Access

- Bring in pieces of red, blue, green, black, and brown paper to use with the last five words in Oral Blending.

Foundational Skills

Primary Focus

Students will orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c]

Students will recognize and name lowercase letters. [RF.K.1d]

Oral Blending

- Use the established oral blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain. The last five words belong to the same conceptual category. Have students tell you the category.

Foundational Skills

Foundational Literacy Skills

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students that the next set of words to be blended are all names of colors. Show each piece of paper and name the color, directing students to repeat the names. Proceed with blending the last five words.

/e/	/n/	/d/	end

(3) /e/ /n/ /d/ > end	(3) /r/ /e/ /d/ > red
(4) /b/ /e/ /n/ /d/ > bend	(3) /b/ /l/ /oo/ > blue

(4) /s/ /e/ /n/ /d/ > send	(4) /b/ /r/ /ou/ /n/ > brown

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record.

Alphabet Review

- Refer to the lowercase alphabet strip or the lowercase letters written in alphabetical order on the board/chart paper. Remind students these are all the letters of the English alphabet and when they are written in this order, the letters are in “alphabetical order.”
- Following your established procedures, sing “The Alphabet Song” with students as you point to each letter.
- Repeat at least one more time.
- If time permits, point to each letter in order, calling on students to name each letter as you review the entire alphabet.

Check for Understanding

Write the word mud on the board/chart paper. Point to ‘m’; choose a student and ask him or her to provide the sound for ‘m’. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the student’s response. Select a second student to provide the letter name for ‘m’. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the letter name provided. Repeat the same process with the rest of the letters in the word. Then have students read the word.

REVIEW RHYMING WORDS (10 MIN.)

Make a Rhyme

- Remind students that two words rhyme when they end with the same sound.
- Give students some examples of rhyming words (e.g., rain/train, look/book, note/goat, etc.).
- Write the word man on the board/chart paper and ask students to read it.
- Write the word can on the board/chart paper and ask students to read it.
- Point out that both words end with the same sound. Read the words again slowly, emphasizing the end sound /an/ so students can hear it. Point out that not only do the words end with the same sound, but they end with the same letters.
- Ask students for other words rhyming with man. Help students identify the ending sound /an/, pointing out the need to substitute different beginning sounds to create rhyming words.
- Complete the remaining words in the same fashion.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. man (can, pan, ran, tan) | 4. wet (bet, let, met, net) |
| 2. bug (rug, hug, mug, snug) | 5. sad (mad, dad, glad, bad) |
| 3. pop (hop, mop, stop, drop) | 6. kit (bit, fit, hit, sit) |

Check for Understanding

Call on different students for each item to monitor understanding of rhyming words.

Lesson 13: Spelling

Language

Primary Focus: Students will read and spell one-syllable, short-vowel words with consonants and consonant clusters (CVC, CCVC, CVCC). [RF.K.3a,b; L.K.2d]

CHAIN AND COPY (20 MIN.)

- Ask students to take out their Chaining Folders, a pencil, and a piece of paper.
- Collect the 'k' and 'r' Small Letter Cards.
- Give each student one Small Letter Card for the /k/ sound ('c') and the /l/ sound ('l').
- Make sure students have Small Letter Cards for the following vowel spellings along the top of the folder: 'i', 'e', 'a', 'u', 'o'.
- Make sure students have Small Letter Cards for the following consonant spellings along the bottom of the folder: 'm' (2), 't' (2), 'd' (2), 'c', 's' (2), 'p' (2), 'b' (2), 'l'.
- Proceed with established "Chain and Copy" procedures.
- Start by asking students to spell lob in the middle of their Chaining Folders while partners copy on paper.
- Ask a student to come up to the pocket chart and spell lob, encouraging students to correct what they have spelled on their Chaining Folders and papers, if necessary.
- After students have chained and copied some of the words, have students switch roles.
- From time to time, choose an individual student to touch and say the individual sounds in a chained word and then read the word with the sounds blended together.

Pocket Chart Setup

Chaining Folder

1. lob > lot > dot > cot > cat > sat > slat > slap > slam > clam
2. slop > clop > clap > clip > slip > lip > lips > tips > tops > cops > caps

Lesson 13: “Mumps”

Reading

Primary Focus: Students will read “Mumps” with purpose and understanding.
[RF.K.4]

REREAD “MUMPS” (20 MIN.)

Small Group

Group 1: Have students take out their Readers, sit with their partners, and take turns rereading “Mumps” aloud. Students who finish early should reread the stories “Kit’s Pants” and “Kit’s Mom.” They should not read ahead.

Group 2: Students in Group 2 should read aloud with the teacher today. Before reading the story, “Mumps,” write can’t on the board/chart paper and point out the use of the apostrophe. Explain that can’t means can not.

- Ask students to turn to the table of contents and locate the title, “Mumps,” indicating the page on which this story starts (page 57). Have students turn to this page and read the title of the story.
- Let students know as they practice reading these stories, they may start to recognize words they have read before. Write the word Kit on the board/chart paper, explaining, for example, they will see this word several times in this story. If they know the word, they can say it all at once, without sounding out each letter.
- Using an oral reading method of your choice, have students read the story aloud.
- Remind students to run their finger under each word as they read the story aloud. If they do not immediately recognize a word, they should sound it out letter by letter.
- Have students reread the story, if time permits.
- If time permits, continue having students read “Kit’s Pants” and “Kit’s Mom” in the same fashion.

Alphabet Soup

- Place Small Letter Cards for the 26 letters of the alphabet in a container.
- Have a student select a card, show it to the class, and say the name of the letter printed on the card and the sound or sounds the letter represents.
- Repeat with all of the remaining cards.
- If time permits, have students sing “The Alphabet Song” as you point to each letter on the alphabet strip.

Check for Understanding

Write the word job on the board/chart paper. Point to ‘j’; choose a student and ask him or her to provide the sound for ‘j’. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the student’s response. Select a second student to provide the letter name for ‘j’. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the letter name provided. Repeat the same process with the rest of the letters in the word.

REVIEW RHYMING WORDS (10 MIN.)

- Remind students that two words rhyme when they end with the same sound.
- Give students some examples of rhyming words (e.g., wreck/deck, seem/team, shine/nine, make/take, etc.).
- Write the word tag on the board/chart paper and ask students to read it.
- Write the word bag on the board/chart paper and ask students to read it.
- Point out that both words end with the same sound and the same letters. Read the words again slowly, emphasizing the end sound /ag/ so students can hear it.
- Ask students for other words rhyming with tag. Help students identify the ending sound /ag/, pointing out the need to substitute different beginning sounds to create rhyming words.
- Complete the remaining words in the same fashion.

| 2. wig (big, dig, jig, twig) | 5. hat (bat, cat, mat, sat) |
| 3. get (jet, pet, set, wet) | 6. must (dust, just, rust, crust) |

Check for Understanding

Call on different students for each item to monitor understanding of rhyming words.

Lesson 14: “Up”

Reading

Primary Focus: As the teacher reads “Up” aloud, students will track print from top to bottom and left to right; identify periods at the end of sentences; and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events.

[RF.K.1a–c; RL.K.1; RL.K.3; RL.K.7]

Students will read “Up” with purpose and understanding. [RF.K.4]

INTRODUCE THE STORY (5 MIN.)

Note: In this story, the uppercase letters ‘U’, ‘K’, ‘M’, ‘J’, ‘T’, and ‘P’ are used.

Purpose for Reading

- Tell students they will read a story about Kit climbing something with her friends. Ask students to pay special attention to the story so they can tell you what Kit and her friends are doing.

TEACHER DEMONSTRATION (5 MIN.)

Read “Up”

- Load or display the story “Up” from the Kit Big Book.
- Have students read the title of the story.
- Read the story “Up” once without interruption, running a finger beneath the words as you read them.
- Read the story a second time, pausing to point out words with consonant clusters.
- If you have time, read the story again, having students read aloud.

Wrap-Up

- Discuss the following questions as a class. Students should respond in complete sentences. Ask a student to come to the Big Book and read the sentence/point to the illustration that answers the question.

Reading

Exchanging Information and Ideas

Entering/Emerging

Reframe questions as simple yes/no questions:
“Is Kit up in a tree?”
“Does Kit help the other kids get up?”

Transitioning/Expanding

After asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: “The setting of this story is outside, in a . . .”

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students’ responses.

2. Inferential. What are the characters doing in the story? Look at the illustrations.
 - » The characters are climbing up in a tree.
3. Literal. Who did Kit help get up first?
 - » Kit helps Max get up first.
4. Inferential. What is the setting of the story? Look at the illustrations.
 - » The setting of the story is outside/up in a tree.
5. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Dictation With Phrases

- Ask students to take out a pencil and a piece of paper.
- Tell students you are going to say a number of phrases for them to write. (Select phrases from the box.)

- | | | |
|-----------------|--------------------|--------------------|
| 1. ant and bug | 8. wet frog | 15. rust on bus |

- Say a phrase (e.g., ant and bug). Then repeat the phrase, raising one finger for each word: “ant (raise thumb) . . . and (raise pointer finger) . . . bug (raise middle finger).”
- Ask students how many words are in the phrase ant and bug.
- Draw three lines on the board/chart paper—one for each word in the phrase. Have students do the same on their paper.
- Ask students for the first word in the phrase. Fill in the first line on the board/chart paper with the word ant, completing the word sound by sound. Have students do the same on their paper.
- Model reading the word as a strategy for double-checking spelling accuracy.
- Repeat for the remaining two words in the phrase.
- Demonstrate this process with at least one or two additional phrases before having students complete the steps independently.
- Remind students to refer to the Sound Posters.

Making Words

Students reinforce phonics knowledge by making words with initial and final consonant clusters and adding ‘s’.

- Give each student a copy of Activity Page TR 14.1.

- Model how to use the letters surrounding the center box to make words.
- Surrounding letters may be single beginning or ending sound/spellings; build initial or final consonant clusters; or serve as final 's' to make nouns plural (e.g., flags) or verbs active (e.g., grabs).
- Tracing the path of letters may support students as they attempt sound/spelling combinations.
- Students write the words they make on the lines provided.
- Ensure comprehension by asking students to identify the real words and use them in an oral sentence or sketch a picture.

Note: Adding final -s to some words will create a six-phoneme word.

MORE HELP WITH RHYMING WORDS

Give Me a Word

- Gather a collection of blocks (e.g., unit blocks or locking cubes).
- Tell students you will provide a word and want them to say a rhyming word. For example: "Give me a word that rhymes with pig."
- As students provide rhyming words, give them a block. With each block, students get a turn to place it, building a collective structure as the game continues.

Support

If students struggle to make words using the 3x3 boxes, the boxes may be cut out and used as letter cards for building words.

Support

If students struggle to think of a word, you may provide an alphabet strip and prompt them to try different beginning sounds to find a rhyme.

- Distribute the following Large Letter Cards listed in the Lesson at a Glance, reviewing each letter's sound as you do.
- Tell students if they are holding a card with a picture of a sound or letter in pan, they should go to the front of the room and stand in the order that spells pan. If necessary, help students with correct order.
- Once students are standing in place, ask a seated student to sound out the letters in the order they are arranged to verify that students at the front have spelled pan correctly.

Large Letter Cards

- Say, “If that is pan, show me span.”
- Students should rearrange themselves to make the new word.
- Continue this process until all of the words in the first chain have been spelled.
- Have students trade cards.
- Proceed to the next chain.
- Have any students without Large Letter Cards write the chained words on the board/chart paper or in a notebook.

1. pan > span > spat > sat > sap > lap > flap > flaps > flips > flops
2. mud > bud > bed > led > fled > sled > slid > skid > kid > kids

Lesson 15: Spelling

Foundational Skills

Primary Focus: Students will read and spell one-syllable, short-vowel words with consonants and consonant clusters (CVC, CCVC, CVCC). [RF.K.3a,b; L.K.2d]

WORD BOX (15 MIN.)

> Digital Component 15.1

- Distribute and display Activity Page 15.1.
- Ask students to read the first word.
- Ask which of the pictures matches the word milk.
- Have students write milk under the picture of milk, following your example.
- Continue demonstrating until students are ready to work independently.

MORE HELP BLENDING CONSONANT CLUSTERS

Find My Word

- Make one copy of Activity Page TR 15.1 for each student.
- Review the names of the depicted items.
- Pronounce the name of an object by saying the phonemes with a pause in between each sound (e.g., “/d/ [pause] /e/ [pause] /s/ [pause] /k/”).
- Students blend the phonemes and point to the picture of the object.
- Repeat until all the pictures are identified.
- Encourage students to use the blending motions they have learned to help them blend the sounds.
- Manipulatives can be used to cover pictures as they are identified.

Note: Copy and cutting the game cards onto card stock to allow for reuse.

- Follow Race to the Top directions in Lesson 3 of this Teacher Guide to play either “Read It” or “Spell It.”

MORE HELP SPELLING CONSONANT CLUSTERS

Spelling Hopscotch

- Write the vowel spellings ‘i’, ‘e’, ‘a’, ‘u’, and ‘o’ on circular sheets of paper, underlining each spelling. (You may wish to use gray paper so the sheets match the cards on the student Chaining Folders, but this is not essential.)
- Write the consonant spellings ‘s’, ‘t’, ‘r’, ‘p’, ‘d’, ‘l’, ‘n’, and ‘b’ on oval or petal-shaped white sheets of paper, underlining each spelling.
- Follow Spelling Hopscotch directions in Lesson 2 of this Teacher Guide.

Letter Find

- Give each student a copy of Activity Page TR 1.3 (Lowercase Alphabet Board).
- Say, “Show me (letter name)” or “Which one is (letter name)?” asking students to point to the correct letter.

Foundational Skills

Students will demonstrate knowledge of letter-sound correspondences and orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c; RF.K.3a,b]

Students will recognize and name the lowercase letters of the alphabet. [RF.K.1d]

Language (Spelling)

Students will read and spell one-syllable, short-vowel words with consonants and consonant clusters (CVC, CCVC, CVCC). [RF.K.3a,b; L.K.2d]

Reading

As the teacher reads “Fast Fred” aloud, students will track print from top to bottom and left to right; identify periods and exclamation points at the end of sentences; and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events.

[RF.K.1a–c; RL.K.1; RL.K.3; RL.K.7]

Primary Focus

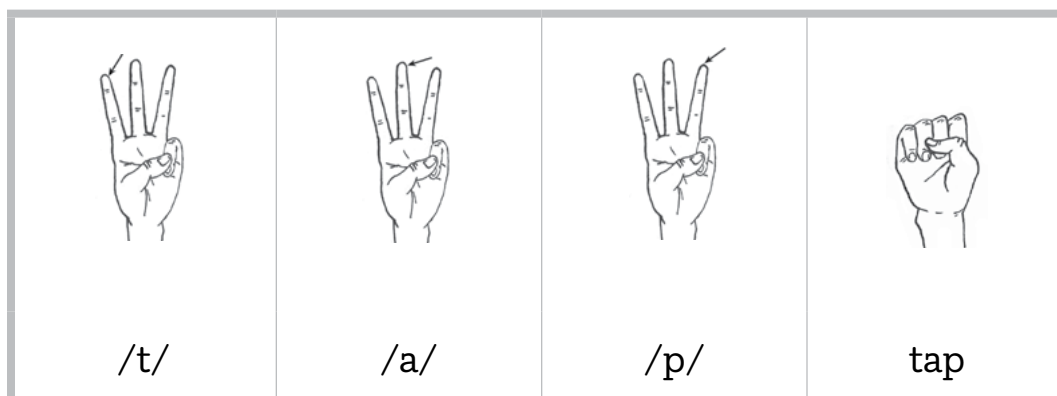

Students will demonstrate knowledge of letter-sound correspondences and orally blend sounds to form single-syllable words. [RF.K.2c; RF.K.3a,b]

Students will recognize and name the lowercase letters of the alphabet. [RF.K.1d]

WARM-UP (10 MIN.)

Oral Blending

- Use the established oral blending procedures. The first five words are in a chain. The last five words belong to the same conceptual category. Have students tell you the category.

Note: There is no /th/ sound in South American Spanish. Demonstrate to students how to make the sound. Open your teeth just a little bit, stick the tip of your tongue between your teeth and push the air out. Point out that this sound is different from the /sh/ sound because of the placement of the tongue.

(3) /t/ /a/ /p/ > tap

(3) /m/ /a/ /p/ > map

(3) /k/ /a/ /p/ > cap

(4) /k/ /l/ /a/ /p/ > clap

(5) /k/ /l/ /a/ /s/ /p/ > clasp

(3) /r/ /ae/ /n/ > rain

(4) /w/ /i/ /n/ /d/ > wind

(4) /s/ /t/ /or/ /m/ > storm

(5) /k/ /l/ /ou/ /d/ /z/ > clouds

(5) /th/ /u/ /n/ /d/ /er/ > thunder

Foundational Skills

Foundational Literacy Skills

Prior to blending the last five words, tell students that the next set of words to be blended are all names of things to do with weather. Show each picture and name the weather item, asking students to repeat the word. Proceed with blending the last five words. Prior to thunder, tell students that this word has to do with weather, but you will not show them a picture. This word is the name of a sound.

Observation: Oral Blending Observation Record

Call on a different student to blend each word. Note students' performance in the Oral Blending Observation Record.

Sound/Spelling Review

- Review the Large Letter Cards listed in the Lesson at a Glance chart.
- Ask students to give the sound first and then the letter name.

Check for Understanding

Write the word dots on the board/chart paper. Point to 'd'; choose a student and ask him or her to provide the sound for 'd'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the student's response. Select a second student to provide the letter name for 'd'. Have the class use Thumbs Up/Thumbs Down to indicate if they agree or disagree with the letter name provided. Repeat the same process with the rest of the letters in the word.

DICTIONATION WITH WORDS (20 MIN.)

➤ Digital Component 16.1

- Distribute and display Activity Page 16.1.
- Tell students you are going to say a number of words for them to write.
- Say the word vet. Then segment the word, raising one finger for each sound: “/v/ (raise thumb) . . . /e/ (raise pointer finger) . . . /t/ (raise middle finger).”
- Ask students how many sounds are in the word vet.
- Draw three lines on the board/chart paper—one for each sound in vet.
- Ask students for the first sound in vet. Fill in the first line on the board/chart paper with the letter ‘v’. Have students do the same on the activity page.
- Repeat for the remaining two sounds and spellings in vet.
- Model reading the word letter sound by letter sound to check for spelling accuracy.
- Demonstrate this process with at least one or two additional words before having students write the words independently.

Lesson 16: “Fast Fred”

Reading

Primary Focus

As the teacher reads “Fast Fred” aloud, students will track print from top to bottom and left to right; identify periods and exclamation points at the end of sentences; and answer questions about characters, setting, and main events.

[RF.K.1a–c; RL.K.1; RL.K.3; RL.K.7]

Students will read “Fast Fred” with purpose and understanding. [RF.K.4]

INTRODUCE THE STORY (5 MIN.)

Note: In this story, the uppercase letters ‘K’, ‘F’, and ‘S’; quotation marks; a comma; and an exclamation point are used.

Preview Core Vocabulary

- Before reading today’s story, preview the following vocabulary with students. Write the words on the board/chart paper, help students sound them out, and explain their meaning.

gulp—v., to swallow in a hurried or greedy fashion (72)

Example: I gulp down water after running.

pal—n., a friend (72)

Example: My pal shares his toys with me.

Purpose for Reading

- Tell students they will read a story about Kit’s pal Fred. Ask students to pay special attention to the story so they can tell you what Fred is doing.

TEACHER DEMONSTRATION (10 MIN.)

Read “Fast Fred”

- Load or display the story “Fast Fred” from the Kit Big Book.
- Have students read the title of the story.
- Read the story “Fast Fred” once without interruption, running a finger beneath the words as you read them.
- Point to the last sentence of the story and tell students it is enclosed in quotation marks. Have the students say quotation marks.
- Tell students quotation marks are used to indicate a person’s words. In this case, the quotation marks indicate Kit is saying, “Stop it, Fred!”
- Point to the comma in the last sentence. Tell students a comma signals the person reading to pause briefly.
- Point to the exclamation point at the end of the last sentence and explain that it is another punctuation mark (like a period). Have students say exclamation point.
- Tell students an exclamation point indicates something is being shouted out (exclaimed) because the speaker is very excited.

Foundational Skills

Foundational Literacy Skills

Spanish-speaking ELLs may be confused by the use of quotation marks since they aren’t used in Spanish text. Explain that in English, when a character is speaking, what he says goes between two sets of two quotes.

Reading

Exchanging Information and Ideas

Entering/Emerging

Reframe questions as simple yes/no questions. "Is Fred Kit's pal?" "Does Fred gulp juice?"

Transitioning/Expanding

After asking each question, provide students with a specific sentence frame: "Fred gets milk on his . . ."

Bridging

Encourage students to expand and/or build from other students' responses.

- Read the story a second time, pausing to point out the quotation marks, the comma, the exclamation point, and words with consonant clusters.
- If you have time, read the story again.

Wrap-Up

- Discuss the following questions as a class. Students should respond in complete sentences. Ask a student to come to the Big Book and read the sentence/point to the illustration that answers the question.

Discussion Questions for "Fast Fred"

1. Literal. Who is Kit's pal?
 - » Kit's pal is Fred.
2. Literal. What does Fred gulp?
 - » Fred gulps his milk.
3. Literal. Why does Kit get mad at Fred?
 - » Fred gets milk on Kit.
4. Literal. What does Kit say to Fred?
 - » Kit says, "Stop it, Fred!"
5. Literal. Who are the main characters in this story?
 - » The main characters are Kit and Fred.
6. Inferential. What is the setting of this story? Look at the illustrations.
 - » The setting is inside at a table.
7. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Observation: Discussion Questions Observation Record

Call on a different student to answer each question. Note students' performance in the Discussion Questions Observation Record.

READ “FAST FRED” (15 MIN.)

Small Group

Group 2: Have students take out their Readers, sit with their partners, and take turns reading “Fast Fred” aloud. Students who finish early should reread the stories “Up” and “Mumps.” They should not read ahead.

Group 1: Before reading the story, “Fast Fred,” write each of the words in the box below on the board/chart paper, letter by letter, asking students to provide the sound of each letter as you write it. Ask students to blend and read the word after you have finished writing the complete word. Have one or more students use the word in an oral sentence. Be sure to explicitly teach the meaning of pal and gulps, as these are likely to be unfamiliar words for many students.

fast	pal	milk	pants
Fred	gulps	desk	stop

- Let students know as they practice reading these stories, they may start to recognize words they have read before. Write the word Kit on the board/chart paper, explaining, for example, they will see this word several times in this story. If they know the word, they can say it all at once, without sounding out each letter.
- Using an oral reading method of your choice, have students read the story aloud.
- Remind students to run their finger under each word as they read the story aloud. If they do not immediately recognize a word, they should sound it out letter by letter.
- On the next to the last page of the story (page 74), be sure to call students’ attention to the new punctuation in the last sentence, “Stop it, Fred!” explaining that quotation marks signal these are exact words someone (Kit) said. Also point out the exclamation point is a signal that the words were said with emphasis. Provide students with other oral examples of sentences one might punctuate with an exclamation point.
- Have students read the story a second time.
- If time permits, continue having students read “Up” and “Mumps” in the same fashion.

ADVANCE PREPARATION

Note to Teacher

This is the final lesson of Unit 6. During this lesson, you will assess students to ascertain their understanding of the material presented in Unit 6. The Part A and Part B assessments included on Activity Pages 17.1 and 17.2 may be administered as group assessments.

Reading

- Students who partner read “Fast Fred” in the previous lesson (Group 2) will read aloud with the teacher today. Group 1 students will partner read “Fast Fred.”

Note: At the end of this lesson, you may consider keeping the Kit Readers for use in Unit 7. In Unit 7, the use of the student Reader, Sam, does not begin until Lesson 9. You may want students to practice reading in the Kit Reader before Lesson 9.

Unit Assessment

- Make one copy of the Unit 6 Assessment Record Sheet located in Teacher Resources.

Lesson 17: Consonant Clusters

Unit Assessment

READING CONSONANT CLUSTERS (10 MIN.)

The Part C assessment has two parts. Part 1 is a whole-group activity required of all students. They will circle 10 words, one per row, as you pronounce each one-syllable CVC, CCVC, or CVCC word. After scoring Part 1, you will determine which students need to complete Part 2.

Part C, Part 1

- Distribute and display Activity Page 17.4 and pencils.
- Display the front of Activity Page 17.4 in order to familiarize students with the format.
- Describe the activity to students by telling them that you will say a word for each row; they will be asked to circle the word you say.
- Tell students to find the practice row with the smiley face. Say, “mat,” and ask students to circle the correct word. Once you are sure students understand the directions, proceed with the assessment.

| 3. swig | |

ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION

Part C, Part 1

- Assign 1 point for each word circled correctly.
- There are ten words making a total score of 10 points possible.
- Interpret scores as follows:
 - 9 or 10 points—excellent
 - 8 points—good
 - 7 points—fair
 - 6 points or less—poor
 - Students scoring 7 or fewer points must complete Part 2 of the assessment.

PRACTICE

Label the Pictures

- Explain the directions for Activity Pages 17.5 and 17.6 and ask students to complete these pages independently, as you administer Part C, Part 2 assessments to individual students.

READING CONSONANT CLUSTERS (10 MIN.)

Part C, Part 2

Students who scored 7 and below on Part 1 will need to complete Part 2. In Part 2. Meet briefly with students individually to administer this ten-word reading assessment, using the word cards in Teacher Resources. The estimated time for each child is two to four minutes.

Activity Pages

ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION

Part C, Part 2

Activity Page 17.3

Part 2 involves assessing students individually by having them read aloud ten words printed on separate cards. The word cards for the assessment are printed in Teacher Resources. Copy the page and cut out the words. Show the cards to the student one at a time.

Use the Student Record Sheet on Activity Page 17.3 to record each word as the student reads it. Scoring is based on one point assigned for every sound in a word which is read correctly, as follows:

- | | |
|--------------|--------------|
| 1. fist (4) | 6. help (4) |
| 2. plum (4) | 7. crust (5) |
| 3. step (4) | 8. swim (4) |
| 4. plant (5) | 9. sand (4) |
| 5. drop (4) | 10. spot (4) |

Interpret scores as follows:

- 38 or more points—excellent
- 34–37 points—good
- 30–33 points—fair
- Less than 30 points—poor

Further analyze each student's errors to determine whether there are one or more individual letter-sound correspondences that are particularly problematic. The subtotals for each sound/spelling at the bottom of the Student Record Sheet (Activity Page 17.3) should facilitate the identification of specific problem areas.

Also examine whether there are mispronunciations that occur more frequently in a given position in words (e.g., does the student read the initial sound correctly, but misread the next sound in a consonant cluster?).

Finally, examine whether the student succeeded in reading words correctly on a second attempt. If so, the student could be rushing and may benefit from explicit instruction to slow down and look at each letter in a word sequentially, left to right.

Pausing Point

It is strongly recommended that you pause for one to three days after administering the Unit 6 Assessment before starting Unit 7. Use this time to administer either the Dolch or Fry Word Assessment, located in Teacher Resources, individually to each student to monitor their progress in reading high-frequency words with increasing automaticity. Record each student's results on the Dolch or Fry Word Assessment Individual Record, located in Teacher Resources.

While you work one-on-one to assess a given student, you may assign any of the other activities described below to other students, based on needs identified on the Unit 6 Assessment, as well as your observations during instruction throughout this unit.

You may find that different students need practice with different skills, so you should choose activities accordingly. Please note that of greatest concern are students who still have difficulty blending words (Oral Blending Observation Record), students who have difficulty reading words with the consonant clusters (Part C of the Unit Assessment), and/or students who struggle during oral reading of the Reader, Kit (Anecdotal Reading Record).

If you find that you have students with one or more of the above difficulties, you may want to ask them to read aloud individually to you, using the extra stories at the end of the Reader. It may be especially informative to collect a running record of these students' reading, using the Running Records for "Pip's Cats" and "Vic Gets Lost," found in the Activity Book on Activity Pages PP.3 and PP.4.

While it is desirable for students to be making progress in learning letter names and rhyming, it is unlikely that difficulty in these discrete skills will significantly impede students' success in Unit 7, where ongoing practice in both skills will be provided.

Please note that you have a variety of different activities to choose from during the Pausing Point: those listed below as specific Pausing Point activities, the activities in "Additional Support" at the end of each lesson, and the online Assessment and Remediation Guide at ckla.amplify.com; see Unit 6 of the Kindergarten Assessment and Remediation Guide.

Additional progress monitoring assessments for oral blending of consonant clusters are included in the Additional Support sections of Lessons 5 and 11 in this guide. Progress monitoring assessments for reading words with consonant clusters are located in the Additional Support sections of Lessons 6 and 12. Additional assessments for these and other skills taught in this unit are also included in the Assessment and Remediation Guide, Unit 6.

BLEND THREE-, FOUR-, AND FIVE-SOUND WORDS

Relay Blending

- Divide the class into two teams and have each team form a line.
- Say a segmented word (e.g., “/s/ ... /p/ ... /o/ ... /t/”), and ask the first student in each line to blend it.
- The student who is first to blend the word correctly gets a point for his or her team. Both students should then move to the back of their respective lines.
- If neither student can blend the word correctly, have both students move to the back of their respective lines and let the next students in line take a turn.

TRICKY SPELLING ‘S’ → /S/ AND /Z/

Word Sort by Plural Marker

- Have students complete Activity Page PP.1. This activity page is similar to Activity Page 4.1.
- Make sure students know there are additional items on the back of the activity page.

Jump at the Sound

- Tell students you are going to say some words ending in either /s/ or /z/.
- Tell them to jump up and down and make the /s/ sound if they hear the /s/ sound at the end of the word.
- Tell them to turn around in circles and make the /z/ sound if they hear the /z/ sound at the end of the word.
- Practice this a few times with just the sounds /s/ and /z/.
- Repeat with the following words.

- | | |
|---------------|----------------|
| 1. /z/ bugs | 6. /s/ ships |
| 2. /s/ slips | 7. /z/ friends |
| 3. /s/ lights | 8. /s/ jumps |
| 4. /z/ moons | 9. /s/ tricks |
| 5. /z/ names | 10. /z/ grabs |

READ FOUR- AND FIVE-SOUND WORDS CONTAINING CONSONANT CLUSTERS

Teacher Chaining

- Write wig on the board/chart paper.
- Ask a student to read the word, first in a segmented fashion and then blended.
- Remove 'i' and add 'a' to create wag.
- As you make this change, say, "If that is wig, what is this?"
- Complete the remaining chains.

1. wig > wag > rag > brag > bag > bags > lags > flags > flag > flat
2. hit > fit > flit > flat > slat > slant > plant > pant > pants > punts
3. lap > flap > flaps > flips > flops > plops > pops > mops > maps > mats
4. fist > fit > flit > slit > sit > lit > lot > slot > plot > plots

Match Maker

- Choose seven words and matching pictures (e.g., twigs, flag, swim, drums, stamp, plant, frogs).
- Write each word on a small card and glue the corresponding picture on another card of the same size.
- Shuffle the cards and lay them face down on the table.
- Have students turn over two cards at a time, attempting to find a word/picture match.
- If a student finds a match, he or she keeps the cards.
- Continue the game until all matches have been found.

Game Board with Consonant Clusters

- Use Activity Page PP.2 as a game board for two students. Provide a die and playing pieces.
- Have students put their playing pieces on the start line.
- Have each student take turns rolling the die and moving his or her piece.
- The student reads the word he or she lands on.

- If the student reads the word successfully, he or she may roll again.
- Continue the game until both students have finished.

Note: You can also copy the template we have provided on Activity Page TR PP.1 in Teacher Resources and write other decodable words in the spaces.

Word Reading Sprints

- Make three sets of word cards and matching picture cards (e.g., three cards that have the word frog and three matching picture cards that have a picture of a frog, three cards that have the word desk and three matching picture cards that have a picture of a desk, etc.).
- Place the word cards at the far end of the classroom, playground, or gym.
- Divide the class into three teams, and have each team form a line.
- Give the first student in each line the same picture card.
- Have students race to identify and return with a matching word card.
- The first student to return with a matching word card earns a point for his or her team.
- Repeat until each student has had a turn.
- Scoring is optional.

READ PHRASES

Phrase Flip Book

- Cut out 10 slips of paper.
- Write the following decodable nouns on five of the slips of paper, one noun per slip: kid, man, dog, vet, frog.
- Write the following decodable verbs on five of the slips of paper, one verb per slip: runs, stops, jogs, claps, jumps.
- Stack the noun slips of paper and staple their top edge to a sheet of card stock.
- Stack the verb slips of paper and staple their top edge to the sheet of card stock to the right of the nouns.
- By flipping the slips of paper, students can make and read up to twenty-five decodable phrases, some of which are silly.

Unscramble the Words!

- Write a number of decodable words containing consonant clusters on large cards.
- Hand two or three cards in random order to make a phrase (e.g., fast kids run) to two or three students.
- Have each student say his or her word.
- Have students arrange the cards to make the phrase.
- Continue with other words.

READ SENTENCES

Sentence Strips

- Choose sentences from the Kit Reader that can be illustrated and copy them onto long slips of paper.
- Place the slips of paper in your pocket chart.
- Have students choose a sentence to copy and illustrate.

READ DECODABLE STORIES

Read “Pip’s Cats” and “Vic Gets Lost”

These are extra stories to use during the Pausing Point. You may use them with the entire class or you may ask individual students to read aloud to you so you can keep a running record.

Note: In “Pip’s Cats” the uppercase letters ‘P’, ‘C’, and ‘K’ are used. In “Vic Gets Lost” the uppercase letters ‘V’, ‘P’, ‘G’, and ‘K’ are used.

Discussion Questions for “Pip’s Cats”

1. Literal. Who are the characters in the story?
 - » The characters in the story are Pip and his mom.
2. Literal. How many cats does Pip have?
 - » Pip has six cats.
3. Literal. Why does Pip’s mom get mad at the cats?
 - » The cats got mud on the rug.
4. Literal. Describe how the cats get mud on the rug.
 - » The cats got in mud and tracked it inside on the rug.
5. Inferential. What is the setting of the story? Look at the illustrations to answer this question.
 - » The setting of the story is inside Pip’s house.
6. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Discussion Questions for “Vic Gets Lost”

1. Literal. Who gets lost in the story?
 - » In this story, Vic gets lost.
2. Literal. How does Pip feel when his cat gets lost?
 - » Pip feels sad when Vic gets lost.
3. Do you have questions you would like to ask to clarify your understanding of the story?

Partner Reading: “Fast Fred,” “Pip’s Cats,” and “Vic Gets Lost”

- Tell students to sit with their partners, take out their Readers, and take turns reading the following stories aloud to one another: “Fast Fred,” “Pip’s Cats,” and “Vic Gets Lost.”
- Encourage students who finish early to reread stories from previous lessons.

Take-Home Story: “Fast Fred”

- Distribute Activity Page PP.5.
- Have students take the activity page home and give it to a family member so they may practice reading aloud at home.

7. When you go camping, you might sleep in a _____. (tent)
8. The part of a plant that supports the leaves and the flower is called the _____. (stem).

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Handwriting Practice 1

- Have students complete Activity Pages PP.6 and PP.7.
- On the back of each activity page are the same spellings as on the front. The back is more difficult, however, because only starting dots are provided.

Handwriting Practice 2

Note: On Activity Page PP.8 students practice writing four-sound words with

Activity Pages
PP.6–PP.10

initial consonant clusters. Activity Page PP.9 has four-sound words with final consonant clusters and Activity Page PP.10 has five-sound words with initial and/or final consonant clusters.

- Have students complete Activity Pages PP.8–PP.10.

DICTION

Dictation with Words

- Have students take out a pencil and a piece of paper. Prior to writing each word, ask students to listen as you say the word and draw a line for each sound in the word. For example, students draw five lines for swift and then write one letter per line to spell the word.

Note: Select six to eight words for students to write during any given sitting.

1. swift	14. plants	27. jump	40. blast
2. gift	15. print	28. melt	41. drift
3. just	16. raft	29. pond	42. fast
4. nest	17. rust	30. dots	43. help
5. next	18. sand	31. bump	44. rest
6. stamp	19. grasp	32. hump	45. trust
7. test	20. soft	33. lips	46. grin
8. west	21. split	34. hunt	47. hints
9. band	22. text	35. maps	48. lost
10. drum	23. flint	36. strap	49. pants
11. twist	24. hand	37. went	50. tops
12. frost	25. belts	38. fist
13. lift	26. huts	39. dust

Dictation with Phrases

- Ask students to take out a pencil and a piece of paper.
- Tell students you are going to say a number of phrases for them to write. (Select phrases from the following box.)
- Say a phrase (e.g., ant and bug). Then repeat the phrase, raising one finger for each word: “ant (raise thumb) . . . and (raise pointer finger) . . . bug (raise middle finger).”

- Ask students how many words are in the phrase ant and bug.
- Draw three lines on the board/chart paper—one for each word in the phrase. Have students do the same on their paper.
- Ask students for the first word in the phrase. Fill in the first line on the board/chart paper with the word ant, completing the word sound by sound. Have students do the same on their paper.
- Model reading the word as a strategy for double-checking spelling accuracy.
- Repeat for the remaining two words in the phrase.
- Demonstrate this process with at least one or two additional phrases before having students complete the steps independently.
- Remind students to refer to the Sound Posters.

Note: Select four to six phrases for students to write during any given sitting.

- | | |
|--------------------|--------------------|
| 1. ant and bug | 11. big flag |
| 2. damp fog | 12. dust on rug |
| 3. rat in nest | 13. lost hat |
| 4. dad naps | 14. jump and jog |
| 5. plump hen | 15. rust on bus |
| 6. mom in pants | 16. snug in bed |
| 7. jump in pond | 17. belt and pants |
| 8. wet frog | 18. red stamp |
| 9. drops and drips | 19. slid on sled |
| 10. bulb in lamp | 20. soft plum |

Alphabet Walk

- Write each letter of the alphabet on its own sheet of paper.
- Tape the sheets of paper to the floor in alphabetical order to make a path.
- Have students step from sheet to sheet, saying the letter names as they step on the letters.

Letter Name Pretzel Game

- Gather 16 pieces of card stock and a marker.
- Write one lowercase letter of the alphabet on each piece of card stock. Tape the pieces of card stock on the floor next to each other in a square 4 x 4 pattern.
- Copy the template provided (Activity Page TR PP.2 in Teacher Resources) on card stock and use it as the spinner board. Write the letters from the floor pattern into each of the spaces on the spinner board. Attach the dial to the center of the board with a brass fastener.
- Two to four students can play at a time. Another student can be in charge of the spinner and calling out the directions.
- Students are to use their hands and feet to cover the letters as dictated by the spinner.
- The student in charge of the spinner should flick the spinner for each player in turn and call out to each player the letter and the quadrant in which the spinner has landed. For example, if it is Sally's turn, the student will flick the spinner and call out the directions, "Sally, place your left foot on the letter 'f!'" Sally will then place her left foot on the letter 'f', while repeating, "Left foot 'f!'" The game continues until students become entangled and lose their balance.

Letter Name Bingo

- Make Bingo boards with letters.

Note: You can find free Bingo board generators online.

- Write the twenty-six letters of the alphabet on small paper slips and place them in a box.
- Give each student a Bingo board and playing pieces.
- Tell students you will pull letters from the box and you want students to put a playing piece on top of that letter if it is on their bingo card.
- Students should say, "Bingo!" once all of the spellings are covered.

RHYMING

Connect the Rhyming Words

- Have students complete Activity Page PP.11 by drawing a line from each word on the left to a rhyming word on the right.

Picture Reader

- Have students reread any previously taught pages from the Picture Reader, particularly those taught during Unit 6 for Tricky Words I, are, and little.

Slap

- Make two copies and cut out flashcards of either the Dolch or Fry Word flash cards located in Teacher Resources. Card stock is recommended to allow for reuse.
- Shuffle both decks of cards separately and give fifteen cards each to two players.
- Players should turn over cards simultaneously. If the words are different, each player must read his word correctly in order to keep it. If she cannot read the word and the other player can, the other player may keep the card.
- If the two cards are the same, the first player to slap the cards and read the words correctly keeps both cards.
- The player with the most cards at the end of the game wins.

Name _____

Dear Family Member,

Your child is being taught to read by sounding out letters in words. Beginning readers tend to read slowly, sounding out each letter in a word. The skill of reading by sounding out letters is essential, but with ever increasing exposure to frequently used words, students should also begin to automatically and quickly recognize certain familiar words without needing to sound out each individual letter. Speed and automaticity will come from frequent and repeated practice.

To help your child build speed and automatic recognition, you have been provided with a bank of flash cards containing words from a list known as the Dolch Sight Word List. These are words that have been identified as being important for young children to recognize due to their high usage rate.

Your child will be taught to read the following new words as “Tricky Words” during this unit: I (Lesson 1), are (Lesson 6), and little (Lesson 11). He or she should already be able to read all of the other words on the flash cards successfully at the beginning of this unit.

Please have your child cut out the flash cards. In order to build increasingly rapid, automatic recognition of these words, show the cards to your child in random order and have him or her read them as quickly as possible several times each week.

Some of the words on the flash cards can be sounded out, but others are Tricky Words [i.e., words that are difficult to read and spell because they have letters which do not follow the letter-sound correspondences your child has been taught to sound out (e.g., one)]. The portion of any word that your child will not be able to read by sounding out is underlined.

These words simply must be memorized. If your child misreads a Tricky Word during practice, tell him the correct word and have him or her repeat the word back to you while running his or her finger under the word on the card. You might also ask your child to copy any misread word on another piece of paper, while he or she says the word aloud for additional practice.

Most of the words on these flash cards will not have underlined portions. These words can be read by sounding out each individual letter. If your child misreads one of these words, encourage him or her to point to each letter on the card as he or she sounds it out. Once he or she has successfully sounded the word out, have him or her repeat the whole word.

DOLCH WORD ASSESSMENT INDIVIDUAL RECORD: BEGINNING AND END OF UNIT 6

Student Name: _____

Instructions: This is an optional assessment of words from the Dolch Sight Word List. At the beginning of Unit 6, show the student the Dolch Word List which follows this record. Ask him or her to read each word from the list, proceeding in order from top to bottom. (Alternatively, you may use information from the end of Unit 5 Dolch Word Assessment.)

Provide the student with either a blank sheet of paper or card stock to place on the word list page directly under the row he is reading. As he or she completes a row, he or she should slide the paper down just enough to read the next row.

Record the student's performance on each word in the chart below, using + to indicate that the word was read correctly and – to indicate the word was read incorrectly. If the student misreads a completely different word in its place, record the word read by the student. Mark as incorrect any word that the student does not read within 3–5 seconds.

Repeat this assessment at the end of Unit 6.

FRY WORD ASSESSMENT INDIVIDUAL RECORD: BEGINNING AND END OF UNIT 6

Student Name: _____

Instructions: This is an optional assessment of words from the Fry Instant Word List. At the beginning of Unit 6, show the student the Fry Word List which follows this record. Ask him or her to read each word from the list, proceeding in order from top to bottom. (Alternatively, you may use information from the end of Unit 5 Fry Word Assessment.)

Provide the student with either a blank sheet of paper or card stock to place on the word list page directly under the row he or she is reading. As he or she completes a row, he should slide the paper down just enough to read the next row.

Record the student's performance on each word in the chart below, using + to indicate that the word was read correctly and – to indicate the word was read incorrectly. If the student misreads a completely different word in its place, record the word read by the student. Mark as incorrect any word that the student does not read within 3–5 seconds.

Repeat this assessment at the end of Unit 6.

SAMPLE DISCUSSION QUESTIONS OBSERVATION RECORD

Below is an example of a completed Discussion Questions Observation Record. A blank copy for you to photocopy and fill in is found on the next page. The chart is divided into two halves, one for Lessons 1–8 and one for Lessons 9–16. Throughout the unit, as you ask students comprehension questions after reading, record each student’s response using the legend below. Be sure to note whether or not the student answered in a complete sentence and whether or not he/she answered the question correctly. Also denote what type of question (character, setting, or events) the student was answering. At the end of each half of the unit, tabulate the student’s performance in the subtotal column. Pay particular attention to the types of questions that may be problematic for certain students.

Discussion Questions Observation Record

CS ✓ - Answered in a complete sentence

CS ✗ - Did not answer in a complete sentence

C ✓ - Answered a question about a character correctly

C ✗ - Answered a question about a character incorrectly

S ✓ - Answered a question about the setting correctly

S ✗ - Answered a question about the setting incorrectly

E ✓ - Answered a question about events correctly

E ✗ - Answered a question about events incorrectly

SAMPLE ANECDOTAL READING RECORD

Below is an example of a completed Anecdotal Reading Record. A blank Anecdotal Reading Record is found on the next page. You will need to make a copy of the blank Anecdotal Reading Record for each student. As you listen to each student read, make notes about their reading ability in his or her respective Reading Record.

Name: T. Ellis

Lesson: 4 (Kit's Hats)

Page 23: T. successfully sounded out "has" and "hats". Page 26: T. sounded out the /b/ in "big" but didn't read the whole word. Page 28: He paused after "has" and skipped over "flat" before reading "hats". Page 30: He read the first two words before pausing at the "fun". He sounded out the letters but couldn't blend them.

Lesson: 5 (Kit's Cats)

Page 34: T. read the first sentence pretty quickly; possible reliance on memory/picture clues. Page 36: He dropped the 's at the end of "Kit's". Page 28: Dropped the 's again. Page 40: He sounded out the /j/ in "jump" a couple of times; couldn't decode the whole word. He also skipped over "up". He self-corrected when he misread the 'b' in "bed" as 'd'.

Lesson: 8 (Kit's Mom)

Page 44: T. recognizes/pronounces the 's now. He again omitted the word "up". Page 46: He recognized/read the word "up" (it's at the end of the two sentences on this page). Page 48: Sounded out "pets", otherwise his reading was fluent. He can recognize words based on patterns. When a word complicates the pattern he sounds it out or skips over it.

Lesson: 10 (Kit's Pants)

Page 52: T. misread "had" as "has". He successfully read the 's at the end of "Kit's". Page 54: He took a while to get through the sentence with "can't", "stand", and "pants".

Recommendation: Provide more practice in reading consonant clusters from Additional Support.

Lesson: 12 (Mumps)

Page 60: T.'s cadence was halting, but he was able to read all of the words. He did very well with both consonant clusters and reading /z/ versus /s/.

Acknowledgments

These materials are the result of the work, advice, and encouragement of numerous individuals over many years. Some of those singled out here already know the depth of our gratitude; others may be surprised to find themselves thanked publicly for help they gave quietly and generously for the sake of the enterprise alone. To helpers named and unnamed we are deeply grateful.

Contributors to Earlier Versions of These Materials

Susan B. Albaugh, Kazuko Ashizawa, Kim Berrall, Ang Blanchette, Nancy Braier, Maggie Buchanan, Paula Coyner, Kathryn M. Cummings, Michelle De Groot, Michael Donegan, Diana Espinal, Mary E. Forbes, Michael L. Ford, Sue Fulton, Carolyn Gosse, Dorrit Green, Liza Greene, Ted Hirsch, Danielle Knecht, James K. Lee, Matt Leech, Diane Henry Leipzig, Robin Luecke, Martha G.
